

HUMAN TRAFFICKING WHEEL:

Identification of Potential Human Trafficking

If you or someone you know identify with ANY of these statements, you or they may be the victims of human trafficking. US law says that you have been the victim of a crime and are not at fault (TVPA). Please consider speaking with an adult to arrange for protection. Cooperation with law enforcement may save a life. Statistics show that children who run away from abusive homes are likely to be recruited by a trafficker within 48 hours, and they will Not come across as someone you will suspect. Before running away, please get help in finding a safe place.

Immediate Help: Dial 911
