Social and Emotional Learning: From Research to National Perspectives

Roger Weissberg, Ph.D.
President and Chief Executive Officer, CASEL
What do we want our children to be, to know, and to be able to do when they graduate?

How can the entire community be organized to ensure that all students reach the stated goals?
CASEL was founded in 1994 to make SEL an essential part of every child’s education.
- Advance the science of SEL
- Expand effective SEL practice
- Improve federal and state policies

CASEL serves as strategist, collaborator, convener, and supporter for the SEL community.

www.casel.org
CASEL’s Integration Principles

- Connect pre-K to 12 SEL with developmentally and culturally appropriate instruction and programming.

- SEL enhances social-emotional-character development and academic performance through educational methods that:
  - actively engage students,
  - provide opportunities for students to contribute positively, and
  - enhance authentic communication among students and school staff.

- School culture and climate affect students’ behavior and attitudes. And students’ behavior and attitudes affect school culture and climate.

- Coordinate school, family, and community programming.

- Align federal, state, and district policies and supports to foster quality evidence-based school-wide and classroom programming.
What Is SEL?

SEL is a process of acquiring and applying the knowledge, skills, and attitudes related to five core competencies.

- Self-awareness
- Self-management
- Social awareness
- Responsible decision making
- Relationship skills

- Recognize one’s emotions, values, strengths, and limitations.
- Manage emotions and behaviors to achieve one’s goals.
- Make ethical, constructive choices about personal and social behavior.
- Form positive relationships, work in teams, deal effectively with conflict.
- Show understanding and empathy for others.

How do you intend to use the information from this section of the webinar?

- To inform potential future implementation of SEL practices in our district
- To inform and enhance current implementation of SEL practices in our district
- To gather information to share with others with whom I work to make the case to explore SEL practices in our district
- To extend my own knowledge level and apply in the classroom
- To work with staff to develop procedures for integrating SEL in curriculum and instruction
- More than one of the above
- Other (Please detail in the Q&A pane.)
Procedures From the Field

- Consider process and content.
- Develop a memorandum of understanding between CASEL, the DuPage Regional Office of Education, and school districts to promote quality implementation of SEL.
- Form a professional learning community (PLC) to support this work.
- Provide coaching support to school districts.
- Utilize the CASEL Theory of Action as a process for guiding the SEL implementation (www.casel.org) (Slide 22).
Purpose: The Area One SEL Professional Learning Community will meet for the shared purpose of implementing social and emotional learning to promote adult competencies and student achievement and support success in life.

Objectives: In order to support our purpose, the work of this group will be characterized by:

- Opportunities for collective inquiry and collaborative sharing
- Opportunities for the study of current research related to implementing SEL to support student success
Differentiate learning opportunities to meet individual needs.

Create opportunities to develop and strengthen adult competencies within school communities.

Connect SEL to all aspects of school improvement (i.e., comprehensive planning, culture and climate, leadership, curriculum, instruction, assessment and data analysis, and family and community involvement).

Establish a network for sharing and mentoring.
Developing SEL Standards

- State passed Illinois Children’s Mental Health Act in 2003
- Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE), CASEL, administrators, and teachers representing different parts of the state developed goals, standards, and performance benchmarks
- Adopted by ISBE in 2004; posted on ISBE website (www.isbe.org)
- School districts required to develop a policy that ensured all students social and emotional needs would be developed through procedures and curriculum
- Professional development funded for three years through the ICMHP, now SEL implementation is under the State Systems of Support
★★★★★ Goal 31: Develop self-awareness and self-management skills to achieve school and life success.

- Standard A: Identify and manage one’s emotions and behavior.
- Standard B: Recognize personal qualities and external supports.
- Standard C: Demonstrate skills related to achieving personal and academic goals.

(The goals were developed around the CASEL Five SEL Competencies, which is a handout in the File Pod.)
Goal 32: Use social awareness and interpersonal skills to establish and maintain positive relationships.

- Standard A: Recognize the feelings and perspectives of others.
- Standard B: Recognize individual and group similarities and differences.
- Standard C: Use communication and social skills to interact effectively with others.
- Standard D: Demonstrate an ability to prevent, manage, and resolve interpersonal conflicts in constructive ways.
Goal 33: Demonstrate decision-making skills and responsible behaviors in personal, school, and community contexts.

- Standard A: Consider ethical, safety, and societal factors in making decisions.
- Standard B: Apply decision-making skills to deal responsibly with daily academic and social situations.
- Standard C: Contribute to the well-being of one’s school and community.
Six Key Shifts in ELA and Mathematics

- English/Language Arts, Literacy (ELA)
  - Informational Text: Building knowledge through content-rich nonfiction and informational texts.
  - Citing Evidence: Reading and writing grounded in evidence from text.
  - Complex Text: Regular practice with complex text and its academic vocabulary.

- Mathematics
  - Focus. Deepening understanding of content and concepts and their application inside and outside the math classroom.
  - Coherence. Each standard progresses from grade to grade, building new understanding on foundations from previous years.
  - Rigor: In major topics, pursue conceptual understanding, procedural skills and fluency, and application with equal intensity.

Source: “Six Shifts in Common Standards,” adapted from Student Achievement Partners
The Common Core State Standards require students to focus deeply on objectives at each grade level so that they gain a strong foundation; solid conceptual understanding; a high degree of procedural skill; and the ability to solve mathematics problems in and outside the mathematics class.

Aligning SEL and Common Core State Standards Process

- Build a clear knowledge base: Participants attended training, provided by ISBE, around the Common Core.

- PLC participants began the conversation regarding how Common Core lesson design should include SEL so that students had the skills to meet the learning targets.

- Reviewed the alignment of the Anchor Statements for Common Core with SEL created by CASEL. (See handout in File Pod.)

- Work groups in the PLC used the templates, which are also attached, to start the work.

- School districts used this work to develop their own templates. (See Villa Park District 45 Template for Grade 3 Math). Districts shared their work.

- SEL district teams worked with the curriculum departments.
The Common Core States Standards require students to engage deeply in much more complex text than most have been exposed to previously. And not just read the text but deeply engage in its vocabulary, point of view, and author’s intent, all while connecting to prior knowledge and prior reading.

SEL and Instruction Process

- Cultivate the social and emotional competencies of adults.
- Teach the SEL skills with an evidence-based program.

- Engage the staff in looking at their own SEL competencies, reflecting on the domains and the connection with these competencies.
- Reflect on what is working related to this process.
- Guide the work in their districts using district SEL teams.
Teaching Framework to Improve Practice With SEL Content

- Domain 1: Planning includes self-awareness, social awareness, and decision-making skills to plan around a deep understanding of student needs, content, instruction, and assessment practices.

- Domain 2: Establishing a respectful and supportive classroom environment for all requires teachers to have and model all of the SEL competencies.

- Domain 3: Delivering instruction requires strong relationship and decision-making skills that promote communication, engagement, flexibility, and responsiveness.

- Domain 4: Reflecting on professional responsibilities requires self-awareness, self-management, ability to collaborate, and ability to make accurate decisions.
Data Collection

- Needs and resource assessment
- Climate survey
- Attendance
- Office discipline referral
- Graduation rate
- Advanced Placement course selection
- Academic scores
- Teacher rating scales

1. Students need the SEL competencies to successfully hit the learning targets of the Common Core State Standards, as well as create knowledgeable, responsible, caring, contributing students.

2. Quality SEL programming requires coordination at the federal, state, district, school, and classroom levels.

3. District leadership and commitment is essential to strategically integrate social and emotional learning practice.

4. Teacher buy-in for SEL will happen if there is substantive professional development with ongoing coaching and evidence that SEL will support and enhance the teacher’s instructional practice.

5. The addition of Character Development concepts and strategies to the Social and Emotional Learning skills helps to create the culture in which social and emotional learning can take place and thrive.
