Compilation of School Discipline Laws and Regulations

Prepared: March 31, 2023
Introduction

This compilation presents school discipline-related laws and regulations for U.S. states, U.S. territories, and the District of Columbia, and, where available, links to education agency websites or resources related to school discipline and student conduct. The discipline laws and regulations presented in this compilation have been categorized by type of specific discipline issue covered, according to an organizational framework developed by the National Center for Safe and Supportive Learning Environments (NCSSLE). For example, one major category encompasses all laws or regulations governing states or territories that mandate specific disciplinary sanctions (such as suspension) for specific offenses (such as drug possession on school grounds). The school discipline laws and regulations were compiled through exhaustive searches of legislative websites that identified all laws and regulations relevant to each specific category. Compiled materials were subsequently reviewed by state education agency (SEA) representatives in the 50 states, Washington D.C., and the U.S. territories.

Discipline categories were not mutually exclusive. Laws and regulations often appeared across multiple categories. For jurisdictions with more extensive laws covering a breadth of topical areas, relevant sections were excerpted from the larger legislative text for inclusion in the appropriate discipline category. Laws, ordered by chapter and section number, appear first within each category followed by regulations. All laws and regulations listed within categories in the compilation also appear in the sources cited section of the document, which lists laws by chapter and section number and title, and where available, includes active hyperlinks to source websites supported or maintained by state legislatures. Additional links to government websites or resources are provided at the end of this document.

(c) Any minor who has reached the age of 17 years may be allowed flexible school hours by the head of the educational institution in which the minor is enrolled provided he or she is actually, lawfully, gainfully, and regularly employed, but in no case shall he or she be excused entirely from regular attendance or excused to the extent that his or her timely graduation would be jeopardized or prevented.

(d) The Board shall, pursuant to subchapter I of Chapter 5 of Title 2, issue rules to establish requirements to govern acceptable credit for studies completed at independent or private schools and private instruction, to govern the selection and appointment of appropriate staff members to carry out the provisions of this chapter under the direction of the Superintendent of Schools, pursuant to Chapter 6 of Title 1, and in respect to other matters within the scope of authority of the Board that relates to this subchapter.

2504.2 Off-site Suspension and Expulsion shall not be used in response to unexcused tardiness or absence.

2504.3 Principals shall consider all extenuating circumstances before recommending Expulsion.

2504.4 A student may be suspended prior to a conference pursuant to § 2505 if he or she is contributing to an emergency situation in a school. An emergency situation may exist either because of general conditions in the school (e.g., a series of fires or False Alarms; a manifestly high level of student tension; an increasing number of fights or physical attacks; a large number of abuses of property) or because the behavior of an individual student is so disruptive or dangerous that he/she poses a very real and immediate threat to the health and safety of other members of the school community, or to the ability of the school community or the school or portion thereof to continue normal operations.

2504.5 A student may be expelled from DCPS only for the commission of an infraction as set forth in § 2502.5.

2504.6 Students who have been suspended or expelled shall not be eligible to participate in any school function for the duration of their Suspension or Expulsion. The only exceptions that may be authorized by the Chancellor or his or her designee shall be for system-wide testing, or College Board or admission examinations.

2504.7 Any Suspension, including on-site Suspension, in excess of two (2) in a single semester must be approved by a person designated by the Chancellor.

2504.8 In accordance with the An Act To provide for compulsory school attendance, for the taking of a school census in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes, approved February 4, 1925 (43 Stat. 806; D.C. Official Code § 38-201 et seq.), all children of compulsory school age are required to attend school or receive an equivalent education approved by the Office of the State Superintendent of Education. Notwithstanding the parent's responsibility to ensure that the child attends a school, a student may be subject to Suspension or Expulsion from DCPS pursuant to this chapter.

2504.9 The principal or other school official may establish, or make a referral to, a special class or other supervised program for students who are suspended, subject to the approval of a person designated by the Chancellor. This special class or other supervised program may be located within a student's home school or at another appropriate DCPS site.

2504.10 A student who has been suspended or expelled shall have access to an Education Plan as follows:
(a) If a student is suspended for fewer than eleven (11) days, the principal initiating the Suspension shall provide an Education Plan that meets the student's educational needs and allows the student to make up any class and homework assignments and exams without penalty.

(b) If a student is suspended for eleven (11) days or more or expelled, the student shall be placed in an Alternative Educational Setting that will allow the student the opportunity to continue to earn credits towards promotion or graduation requirements.

2504.11 Restitution and/or school service may be required in any case involving school property (e.g., arson, vandalism, burglary, robbery). The amount of restitution or type of school service shall be determined by a person designated by the Chancellor.

2504.12 If a student's Suspension or Expulsion is for a period exceeding the number of school days remaining in the school year, any remaining part of the term of the Suspension or Expulsion may be applied to the succeeding school year.

2504.13 Students younger than the age of fourteen (14) who have been suspended or expelled shall not be allowed to leave school grounds during school hours unless accompanied by a parent or guardian, or his or her designee. Students older than fourteen (14) who have been suspended or expelled shall not be allowed to leave school grounds during school hours until a parent or guardian, or his or her designee, has been contacted by phone or in person and given a reasonable opportunity to arrange for proper supervision of the student. If the parent or guardian of a suspended student cannot be notified by phone or in person, the student must remain at school until the end of the school day.

2504.14 If the parent or guardian of a student who has been suspended cannot be contacted by phone or in person before the next school day, and the student arrives at school, he or she must remain in the building until a parent or guardian can be contacted and given a reasonable opportunity to arrange for proper supervision of the student or until the end of the school day. The student may be segregated and must be appropriately supervised during this time. Any such day will count toward fulfilling the term of the student's Suspension.

2505.15 Except in cases of immediate emergency Suspensions pursuant to § 2504.4, students shall remain in their regular assigned classroom or education setting until the final determination of the Suspension has been made.

2504.16 For students seeking to enroll in DCPS and who have been suspended or expelled from their current school, or who have withdrawn while disciplinary action is pending, a person designated by the Chancellor shall review the facts and circumstances regarding the student's Suspension, Expulsion, or withdrawal pending Expulsion, if the infraction for which the student was disciplined is one for which the student could have been disciplined within DCPS. The purpose of this review is to determine the appropriate placement within DCPS.

(A) The head of a local education agency provides a written justification to the student and parent describing why exceeding the 20-day limit is a more appropriate disciplinary action than alternative responses; or

(B) The student's conduct necessitated an emergency removal, and the head of the local education agency provides a written justification for the emergency removal to the student and parent.

(c) No student, except a student over 18 years of age at a school where more than 1/2 of the students are over 18 years of age, may be subject to an out-of-school suspension or disciplinary unenrollment for an unexcused absence or a late arrival to school; provided, that a student may be unenrolled from a local education agency if the student has accumulated 20 or more consecutive full-school-day unexcused absences.

(d) No student subject to a suspension may be denied the right to continue to access and complete appropriate academic work or to earn credit toward promotion or graduation during a suspension.

(e) The return of a student to school upon conclusion of an out-of-school suspension shall not be made contingent on a parent accompanying the student, attending a conference, or otherwise being present at the school.
(f) Notwithstanding whether a school or local education agency states the reasoning for the removal from school or prohibition from returning to school, no student may be removed from school or prohibited from returning to school for disciplinary reasons, unless the student is subject to an out-of-school suspension or disciplinary unenrollment.

(g) For purposes of due process, a suspension of 6 school days or more shall be considered a long-term suspension.

No student of pre-k age may be suspended for longer than 3 days for any individual incident.

2506.12 The hearing officer shall make an official electronic audio recording of the hearing, which shall constitute the official record thereof. Upon request, a copy of the recording shall be made available to the parent or guardian, adult student, or representative and the local school principal. This provision

If the hearing officer determines that disciplinary action is not warranted and either: (a) fails to state whether a DCPS rule or policy was violated, or, (b) states that a DCPS rule or policy was violated but nevertheless finds the disciplinary action to be unwarranted, the school may maintain documents concerning the alleged infraction until the conclusion of the school year immediately following the incident.

Compilation of School Discipline Laws and Regulations

Prepared: March 31, 2023
Introduction

This compilation presents school discipline-related laws and regulations for U.S. states, U.S. territories, and the District of Columbia, and, where available, links to education agency websites or resources related to school discipline and student conduct. The discipline laws and regulations presented in this compilation have been categorized by type of specific discipline issue covered, according to an organizational framework developed by the National Center for Safe and Supportive Learning Environments (NCSSLE). For example, one major category encompasses all laws or regulations governing states or territories that mandate specific disciplinary sanctions (such as suspension) for specific offenses (such as drug possession on school grounds). The school discipline laws and regulations were compiled through exhaustive searches of legislative websites that identified all laws and regulations relevant to each specific category. Compiled materials were subsequently reviewed by state education agency (SEA) representatives in the 50 states, Washington D.C., and the U.S. territories.

Discipline categories were not mutually exclusive. Laws and regulations often appeared across multiple categories. For jurisdictions with more extensive laws covering a breadth of topical areas, relevant sections were excerpted from the larger legislative text for inclusion in the appropriate discipline category. Laws, ordered by chapter and section number, appear first within each category followed by regulations. All laws and regulations listed within categories in the compilation also appear in the sources cited section of the document, which lists laws by chapter and section number and title, and where available, includes active hyperlinks to source websites supported or maintained by state legislatures. Additional links to government websites or resources are provided at the end of this document.

Student Policy Handbook. Section 22. Control of dangerous and anti-social behavior - Bullying.
The law charges every teacher and principal with maintaining order and discipline among students and provides that students who do not comply with reasonable rules may be recommended for expulsion or other disciplinary action. Actions taken to control and correct undesirable student behavior should take individual circumstances into account, but must always be most concerned for the safety and educational welfare of all students. It is the principal's responsibility to take actions as necessary to protect other students and school personnel from dangerous or socially detrimental actions of students. When there is serious doubt, the student should be suspended until the matter is resolved. The following acts constitute dangerous or anti-social student behavior.

E. Immoral Conduct. Any student who commits or attempts to induce another student to commit an act or acts of immoral conduct that in the principal's judgment may be harmful to others or may bring discredit to the Department shall be suspended until suitable corrective action can be determined. If it appears that the law may have been violated, the student shall be referred to the proper law enforcement agency. After study of the problem, the student shall either be (1) readmitted or (2) continue on suspension with recommendation for further action.

G. Unlawful Drugs/Alcoholic Beverages. Any student who is found to possess, or to have used recently, or to have in any way encouraged the illegal use by another of any alcoholic beverages, narcotics, or drugs shall be suspended until the problem is investigated. If circumstances and/or tangible evidence cause suspicion that an illegal act has been committed, the student shall be referred to the proper law enforcement agency. The suspension shall continue until it has been determined whether the student's attendance is a threat to the welfare of other students, at which time the student shall be either (1) readmitted to regular school pending clearance, or (2) continued on suspension and recommended for expulsion or other action.

H. Weapons.

1. Implements manufactured, used, or intended for use or on as weapons may not be carried at school way to or from school. Students found in possession of weapons shall immediately be referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency and suspended from school until a thorough investigation is made of the circumstances. Unless there is satisfactory evidence that the student's continued attendance will not be dangerous to other persons, expulsion proceedings shall be initiated.

2. The following items are specifically prohibited: snap-blade knives, non-closing knives, knives with blades, firearms, explosives including caps and firecrackers, "first loads," and "brass knuckles," chairs, iron bars, sling shots, metal cake cutters, water pistols (with chemicals) any form of shell, cartridge or bomb containing or capable of emitting tear gas, or any weapon designed for the use of such a shell, cartridge or bomb, and other objects capable of being used as weapons will be considered as such unless the circumstances indicate the contrary. All weapons, whether or not listed herein, are similarly prohibited. The use of any normally non-dangerous implement such as a stone, table fork, board, stick, or baseball bat as a weapon shall come under the provisions of this section.

[…] Any student found hurling objects at school buses at any time will be subjected to disciplinary actions and may result in indefinite suspension. […]

Student Policy Handbook. Section 38. Care of school property.

Violators will be reported to the Department of Public Safety as required by law and may face prosecution.

A. Classroom Discipline.

4. Disciplinary action should be taken as soon as possible and the student returned to the classroom, unless the behavior warrants a future conference or referral to an alternative program.

C. Detaining Students. Students are not to be deprived of instructional physical education or of necessary time to eat lunch, either for punishment or for special help. When it is necessary for students to make up time or receive special help, the teacher may request them to report before school in the morning or detain them after school for not more than one hour. Anticipating the natural concern of parents for immediate student return to home, no student will be detained without prior notification. All students who have bus transportation, regardless of grade level, shall have the privilege of going home the first day to inform parents that they will be detained the following day or days.

The Department directs that no student be suspended, expelled, exempted, or excluded from school unless such action serves, in the best judgment of appropriate school authority, the welfare of the student or the welfare of other students, the school, or the Department.

Definitions

1. Suspension shall mean the temporary removal of a student from school.
2. Exemption shall mean the release from the legal obligation to attend school by the student's voluntary withdrawal before completion of the secondary program.
3. Exclusion shall mean the temporary termination of enrollment because of reasons or conditions such that the student's continued enrollment would be detrimental to the student, to other students, or to the educational program.
4. Expulsion shall mean the termination of enrollment as the result of behavior so serious that future attendance in the regular schools is not contemplated.

School expulsion can only be authorized by the Director of Education on the recommendation of the school principal and the Assistant Director of the Elementary or Secondary Division. Recommendations shall include sufficient documentation requesting the action.

a. Review of Expulsion: Upon written request of the parent(s) or guardian(s), the administration will review any expulsion case in accordance with guidelines and limitations specified in approved administrative regulations and procedures. If action by the Director seems advisable, a recommendation will be made based on the findings of the review.

The Department requires that students enrolled in schools attend school regularly in accordance with the Territorial statutes. It is the position of the Department that the educational experiences lost during an absence from school are irretrievable as the interaction in the classroom setting can seldom be duplicated through makeup work. Students who have been absent three (3) or more consecutive school days shall be required to present to the school a written statement signed by the parent, legal guardian, or physician listing the reason for the absence. The determination of whether an absence will be excused or unexcused will be made by the principal. Students enrolled in grades nine through twelve who accumulate more than three unexcused absences or who accumulate more than twenty combined excused and unexcused absences may be excluded from all classes for the remainder of the semester in which these absences occur. No credits will be earned during that semester by any excluded student. Excuses are to be filed in the individual students' personal folders.

I. Hearing Process
To guarantee due process, any secondary student who has been absent more than the allowable number of times (excused or unexcused absences) will be notified by the school. The parent or legal guardian of the student will then be notified of pending exclusion proceedings. If the parent, legal guardian or student has reason to believe that there is an error in the attendance record or extenuating circumstances exist, a hearing may be requested. Such a request must be initiated by the parent, student, or legal guardian.
within two school days after notification. The hearing will be conducted by a review panel established within each school and composed of a principal (designee) and school instructor(s). The student, parent or legal guardian may appear before the review panel and shall have the right to be represented by an attorney. During the hearing process, the instructors record book shall serve as the legal document of reference and will be used exclusively for determining both excused and unexcused absences. This review panel shall have the authority to recommend to the Principal that the attendance record of the student be corrected or that the student not be excluded from school. The final determination in all hearing proceedings, rests with the secondary school principal.

J. Makeup Work. After any absence, a student shall be required to initiate contact with school instructors to obtain appropriate makeup, work within two school days the absence. Teachers may use their discretion in providing makeup work for students who unexcused absence or who are truant. D. Weapons and dangerous implements.
Student Policy Handbook. Section 22. Control of dangerous and anti-social behavior - Bullying.

The following acts constitute dangerous or anti-social student behavior.

H. Weapons.

1. Implements manufactured, used, or intended for use or on as weapons may not be carried at school way to or from school. Students found in possession of weapons-shall immediately be referred to the appropriate law enforcement agency and suspended from school until a thorough investigation is made of the circumstances. Unless there is satisfactory evidence that the student's continued attendance will not be dangerous to other persons, expulsion proceedings shall be initiated.

2. REGULATIONS

Student Policy Handbook. Section 22. Control of dangerous and anti-social behavior - Bullying.

The following acts constitute dangerous or anti-social student behavior.

D. Repeated School Violations. A student shall not repeatedly fail to comply with directions of teachers, student teachers, substitute teachers, teacher aides, principals, or other authorized school personnel during any period of time when the student is properly under the authority of school personnel.

Chronic Absenteeism and Truancy

LAWS

(a) The truant officer, when notified by any school official, shall investigate all cases of truancy or nonattendance at school.

(b) If any parent fails to send any child under his control to some certified school, the truant officer shall, as soon as practicable after he is notified thereof, give notice to such person that such child shall be present at the proper public school on the day following receipt of such notice.

(c) The truant officer, after giving notice to any person having control of any child not attending school, shall determine whether the notice has been complied with, and if not complied with, the truant officer shall thereupon make complaint against such person before the district court wherein the person resides.

(d) Any person having control of a child who fails to comply with an order of the truant officer shall be fined not more than $15, or confined in prison for not more than 1 month, or both.
REGULATIONS
Territorial law mandates compulsory education for all children ages 5 to 18 inclusively, or from ECE through Grade 12, unless excused or excluded for good reason by the Director of Education. Nonattendance at the schools without legitimate reason constitutes truancy. Students suspected of being truant are to be referred to the School Principal for appropriate action. The current truancy law provides for prosecution of negligent parents/legal guardians.

The Department requires that students enrolled in schools attend school regularly in accordance with the Territorial statutes. It is the position of the Department that the educational experiences lost during an absence from school are irretrievable as the interaction in the classroom setting can seldom be duplicated through makeup work. Students who have been absent three (3) or more consecutive school days shall be required to present to the school a written statement signed by the parent, legal guardian, or physician listing the reason for the absence. The determination of whether an absence will be excused or unexcused will be made by the principal. Students enrolled in grades nine through twelve who accumulate more than three unexcused absences or who accumulate more than twenty combined excused and unexcused absences may be excluded from all classes for the remainder of the semester in which these absences occur. No credits will be earned during that semester by any excluded student. Excuses are to be filed in the individual students' personal folders.

A. Attendance-Checking.
Attendance shall be checked carefully in accordance with individual school practices. Students not accounted for shall be reported to the Principal so that a check can be made as to their whereabouts. Teachers must take daily attendance in their own classes and home-rooms. This is one responsibility that must not be delegated to a student. With the availability of today's technology, teachers are now required to enter student attendance into the Student Management System (SMS) the first 10 minutes of class. [Teachers who have self-contained classrooms are to take daily attendance before instruction.

B. Cause of Absence.
Each school will include specific directions in the student handbook and/or procedures relative to the manner in which students will be readmitted to class subsequent to an absence. In all cases, schools will insist upon parental confirmation of the reason for absence and/or tardiness.

C. Classification of Absences.
The determination of the proper classification requires the exercise of judgment on the part of the teacher or principal. To support this judgment, the student or parent may be required to furnish reasonable evidence of the cause of absence. For example, although a statement of illness is ordinarily accepted, the statement may be challenged for good reason and the parent is required to obtain a statement from a physician. To insure uniformity in practice, the following classifications of absences shall be used:

1. Excused Absence for causes over which the student and parent had no control and absences for causes which are acceptable in the estimation of the principal.
2. Unexcused Absence for educationally unacceptable causes, or absence for which the reason has not been determined or verified.
3. Truant-Absence resulting from parent's failure or refusal to require a student's attendance for educationally unacceptable reasons; the student's failure or refusal to attend school when so directed. by the parent or school official; or the student's absence without official permission from school or class after arriving at school.

D. Responsibility for Work Missed During Absences.

Teachers shall provide an opportunity for student's makeup work missed because of an excused absence, and students shall be held accountable for the work. Teachers may use their discretion in providing makeup work for students who have an unexcused absence or who are truant.

The makeup work must be completed within a reasonable length of time. It should be communicated to students that classroom participation is an integral part of their total evaluation and will have a direct bearing on grades. The primary aim of attendance enforcement is to identify the cause of student absence and through the capacities of the principal, the Department or community agencies, remove the cause of absence so that the student may benefit from the educational opportunities afforded the student.

Substance Use

LAWS

(a) Except as authorized by the Director, it is unlawful for any person to deliver, dispense, distribute, possess with intent to deliver, dispense, or distribute, produce, or manufacture a controlled substance. In determining whether a controlled substance is possessed with intent to deliver, dispense, or distribute, a court should consider, in addition to all other logically relevant factors, the following:

(1) statements by the owner or by anyone in control of the controlled substance:
(2) the amount possessed and its consistency or inconsistency with personal use:
(3) the presence of paraphernalia commonly used in preparing, packaging, or subdividing controlled substances for distribution, dispensing, or delivering; and or
(4) the presence of apparent proceeds or records of distribution, dispensing, or delivering of controlled substances.

(b) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than 20 years, or fined not more than $20,000, or both.

(c) Any person who violates this section by delivering, dispensing, distributing, producing, manufacturing or who attempts to deliver dispense, distribute, produce, or manufacture a controlled substance in any school or on any school campus in the Territory is guilty of a crime and upon conviction shall be imprisoned for a mandatory term of 10 years without the possibility of parole, and fined $10,000.00.

(a) Except as authorized by the director, it is unlawful for a person to possess a controlled substance.

(b) A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished as follows:

(1) for a first offense, a fine not less than $5,000 and not more than $20,000 or not less than 5 years and not more than 10 years in prison, or both;
(2) for a second offense, a fine not less than $20,000 and not more than $30,000 or not less than 10 years and not more than 20 years in prison, or both; and
(3) for a third offense, a fine not less than $30,000 and not more than $40,000 or not less than 15 years and not more than 30 years in prison, or both;

There shall be no parole for a conviction under this section.

(c) The above penalties are mandatory.
REGULATIONS

Regulations and procedures should provide strong and direct support to teachers and administrators in such topics as:

E. Drugs and alcoholic beverages.

Student Policy Handbook. Section 22. Control of dangerous and anti-social behavior - Bullying.
The following acts constitute dangerous or anti-social student behavior.

G. Unlawful Drugs/Alcoholic Beverages. Any student who is found to possess, or to have used recently, or to have in any way encouraged the illegal use by another of any alcoholic beverages, narcotics, or drugs shall be suspended until the problem is investigated. If circumstances and/or tangible evidence cause suspicion that an illegal act has been committed, the student shall be referred to the proper law enforcement agency. The suspension shall continue until it has been determined whether the students' attendance is a threat to the welfare of other students, at which time the student shall be either (1) readmitted to regular school pending clearance, or (2) continued on suspension and recommended for expulsion or other action.

Student Policy Handbook. Section 54. Safe and drug free policy.
All student enrolled in the Public School System are prohibited from participating in any activity relating to the unlawful manufacture, distribution, possession use and/or sale of illegal drugs at any time while on the school premises, or at any school sponsored activities. Any student found in violation of the compliance code on the use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs any time on school campus or while participating in school sponsored activities will be required to do the following:

A. Attend a parental/guardian conference with school authorities
B. Receive available school counseling services;
C. Enroll in rehabilitation programs and services offered by other government agencies. Students who engage in these activities prohibited above shall be subject to disciplinary action as defined in the Student Section, Section 23-G, will be suspended and/or expelled from school. Violators will be reported to the Department of Public Safety as required by law and may face prosecution.

REGULATIONS

Each school principal will follow disciplinary procedures in accordance with those established by the Department. The principal, when feasible, will involve school staff and the parent organization, if any.

A. Classroom Discipline.
1. Classroom discipline is largely a teacher responsibility and should, in most instances, be handled by the teacher.
2. If the teacher is confronted with a situation so serious that it should be brought to the principal's attention, or is confronted with a situation specified in the department's guidelines as unacceptable behavior, the teacher should refer the students involved to the principal or principal's designee.
3. A written report describing this incident must be sent to the office with the student within 24 hours thereafter. If the teacher desires a student-teacher-administrator conference, the teacher should so indicate in the written report. Every effort should be made to hold such conference immediately following the instructional period to determine the appropriate action.
4. Disciplinary action should be taken as soon as possible and the student returned to the classroom, unless the behavior warrants a future conference or referral to an alternative program.

Student Policy Handbook. Section 22. Control of dangerous and anti-social behavior - Bullying.

Compilation of School Discipline Laws and Regulations

Prepared: March 31, 2023
Introduction

This compilation presents school discipline-related laws and regulations for U.S. states, U.S. territories, and the District of Columbia, and, where available, links to education agency websites or resources related to school discipline and student conduct. The discipline laws and regulations presented in this compilation have been categorized by type of specific discipline issue covered, according to an organizational framework developed by the National Center for Safe and Supportive Learning Environments (NCSSLE). For example, one major category encompasses all laws or regulations governing states or territories that mandate specific disciplinary sanctions (such as suspension) for specific offenses (such as drug possession on school grounds). The school discipline laws and regulations were compiled through exhaustive searches of legislative websites that identified all laws and regulations relevant to each specific category. Compiled materials were subsequently reviewed by state education agency (SEA) representatives in the 50 states, Washington D.C., and the U.S. territories.

Discipline categories were not mutually exclusive. Laws and regulations often appeared across multiple categories. For jurisdictions with more extensive laws covering a breadth of topical areas, relevant sections were excerpted from the larger legislative text for inclusion in the appropriate discipline category. Laws, ordered by chapter and section number, appear first within each category followed by regulations. All laws and regulations listed within categories in the compilation also appear in the sources cited section of the document, which lists laws by chapter and section number and title, and where available, includes active hyperlinks to source websites supported or maintained by state legislatures. Additional links to government websites or resources are provided at the end of this document.

Notes & Disclaimers

REGULATIONS
411. Attendance.
There is a plethora of educational research that shows the strong relationship between student attendance and academic success. The Board acknowledges that students need to be in school and engaged in learning with their teachers and peers. Excessive absences or tardiness erode this understanding and may lead to incomplete and unsatisfactory work, a reduced capacity to meet curricular standards, and lower course grades. Parents/guardians are partners with the school and faculty ensuring that students attend and arrive in class on time every day of the school year. Therefore, parents shall inform the school immediately when a child does not attend school. School personnel and teachers (to include substitutes or other personnel covering classroom instruction) shall inform parents, as soon as possible, but no later than the end of the school day when a child does not attend class. As partners in education, parents are expected to review their child's attendance, academics and social behavior on a daily basis using parent portal.

The Board acknowledges that academic achievement entails many components and those academic credentials should reflect more than just the product of quizzes, examinations, and papers. These alone do not adequately prepare students for the challenges awaiting them after graduation. An additional essential component of academic excellence is the development of good work habits necessary to successfully compete in an increasingly competitive work force. Attendance is the cornerstone for the development of such good work habits. The Board believes that the Department must place great emphasis on student attendance and do everything possible to ensure students come to school every day.

Students who are under the compulsory education age are required to attend school full-time, notwithstanding their inability to receive a passing grade in any course. A compulsory aged student who has incurred twelve (12) or more unexcused absences in a school year shall be referred to the Superintendent of Education. Pursuant to 17 GGA §6402, the Superintendent of Education has the explicate authority to review and approve all habitual truant petition to family court.

Upon enactment of this policy, the Superintendent shall establish uniform procedures across elementary, middle, and high schools for tracking student attendance. The Student Conduct Procedural Manual (SOP 1200-018) can be referenced to further clarify definitions and language addressed in this policy.

REGULATIONS

409. Prohibiting harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting, sexual harassment.

The Department of Education (DOE) does not condone or tolerate acts of sexual misconduct perpetrated against our students. Public education is grounded in public trust. In upholding that trust, we remain committed to creating and maintaining a public school system where no student will be fearful of coming to school or assigned worksite. Students must feel safe and secure at all times. DOE is committed to providing a supportive, secure and safe learning environment and workplace that is free of all forms of harassment and sexual misconduct. Whereas, it is the Board's intent to ensure students are free of sexual misconduct and harassment within the public school system as follows:

I. Purpose

It is the policy of the Guam Education Board to ensure that students who attend the Department of Education (DOE) are safe, secure, and can count on being treated with respect. Schools shall be free from harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting and sexual harassment and shall provide an environment that is conducive to learning. School administrators shall ensure that the school environment is free of any threat while attending school and all school sponsored activities. This requires a fundamental change in the way administrators and employees in the DOE view harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and fraternization. The school principal must recognize that minor events, which do not rise to the level of violations of school rules or a crime, may still create an environment which makes students feel uncomfortable or even terrified at the prospect of attending school. This policy is to allow students active participation in school affairs without fear and threat of harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting, sexual harassment. This policy will also follow federal anti-discrimination laws enforced by the Office of Civil Rights (OCR). The statutes that OCR enforces includes Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504); and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Title II). Section 504 and Title II prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability.

II. Coverage

This policy governs all students within the jurisdiction of DOE and is intended to prohibit bullying, cyberbullying, sexting and sexual harassment in the public school system. The term "at school" is defined in 17 GCA Section 3112.1 that states (a) "'at school' means in a classroom, elsewhere on or immediately adjacent to school premises, on a school bus or other school-related vehicle, at an official bus stop, or at a school-sponsored activity or event whether or not it is held on school premises."

REGULATIONS

409. Prohibiting harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting, sexual harassment.

The Department of Education (DOE) does not condone or tolerate acts of sexual misconduct perpetrated against our students. Public education is grounded in public trust. In upholding that trust, we remain committed to creating and maintaining a public school system where no student will be fearful of coming to school or assigned worksite. Students must feel safe and secure at all times. DOE is committed to providing a supportive, secure and safe learning environment and workplace that is free of all forms of harassment and sexual misconduct. Whereas, it is the Board's intent to ensure students are free of sexual misconduct and harassment within the public school system as follows:

I. Purpose

It is the policy of the Guam Education Board to ensure that students who attend the Department of Education (DOE) are safe, secure, and can count on being treated with respect. Schools shall be free from harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting and sexual harassment and shall provide an environment that is conducive to learning. School administrators shall ensure that the school environment is free of any threat while attending school and all school sponsored activities. This requires a fundamental change in the way administrators and employees in the DOE view harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and fraternization. The school principal must recognize that minor events, which do not rise to the level of violations of school rules or a crime, may still create an environment which makes students feel uncomfortable or even terrified at the prospect of attending school. This policy is to allow students active participation in school affairs without fear and threat of harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting, sexual harassment. This policy will also follow federal anti-discrimination laws enforced by the Office of Civil Rights (OCR). The statutes that OCR enforces includes Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504); and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Title II). Section 504 and Title II prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability.

II. Coverage

This policy governs all students within the jurisdiction of DOE and is intended to prohibit bullying, cyberbullying, sexting and sexual harassment in the public school system. The term "at school" is defined in 17 GCA Section 3112.1 that states (a) "'at school' means in a classroom, elsewhere on or immediately adjacent to school premises, on a school bus or other school-related vehicle, at an official bus stop, or at a school-sponsored activity or event whether or not it is held on school premises."

School-based Behavioral Health Programs

LAWS
§ 6700. Legislative Findings and Intent.
[Guam Legislature] finds that:
(a) The use of educational settings to screen children and adolescents for "mental disorders" has led to parents not being given sufficient information about the purpose of such screenings and the ramifications if they consent, such as psychological or psychiatric treatment for their child and family, thereby violating the recognized requirements and standards regarding "full informed consent".
(b) Frequently, a system of "passive consent" is used whereby "consent" is considered provided when the parent does not return the consent form. The onus is, therefore, on the child/adolescent to transmit the consent form to the parent, and on the parent ensuring that if consent is not given, the form is signed and returned. However, the onus should rest on both the school and the mental health professional or agency seeking to conduct the screening, with criminal penalties if consent is not obtained in writing and the child is subjected to non-consensual screening.
(c) "Passive consent" or other consent forms often:
   (1) mislead parents into thinking that what is taking place at the school is just a health evaluation for their child, not a psychiatric evaluation;
   (2) do not include information about the personal and invasive questions their child will be asked;
   (3) do not contain information on the difference between "emotional health concerns", mental disorders, or physical diseases, the latter of which can be physically tested for and the former cannot; and
   (4) leave the parent with so little information that he or she cannot make a proper informed decision to give valid informed consent.
(d) Parents also are not informed that mental health screenings for "mental disorders" are based on those defined in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM). However, in the introduction of the DSM-IV it states, "Moreover, although this manual provides a classification of mental disorders, it must be admitted that no definition adequately specifies precise boundaries for the concept of 'mental disorder'". Further, "...the term 'mental' disorders...persists in the title of DSM-IV because we have not found an appropriate substitute".
(e) Unlike scientific methods to determine physical diseases like cancer, diabetes or tuberculosis, a diagnosis of "mental disorder" or "syndrome" is not based on any medical test, such as a brain scan, a 'chemical imbalance' test, x-ray or blood test. The former U.S. Surgeon General, in his 1999 Report on Mental Health, which became a reference for many countries, stated, "The diagnosis of mental disorders is often believed to be more difficult than diagnosis of medical disorders since there is no definitive lesion, laboratory test or abnormality in brain tissue that can identify the illness."

(f) Harvard Medical School's Dr. Joseph Glenmullen warns that the checklist rating scales used to screen people for conditions, such as "depression", are "designed to fit hand-inglove with the effects of drugs, emphasizing the physical symptoms of depression that most respond to antidepressant medication ... While assigning a number to a patient's depression may look scientific, when one examines the questions asked and the scales used, they are utterly subjective measures". He says,
"The symptoms are subjective emotional states, making the diagnosis extremely vague".

(g) Based on the subjective nature of the mental health diagnostic system and mental health screenings, millions of children are prescribed antidepressants or stimulants recognized by leading drug regulatory agencies as causing suicidal behavior, suicide, violence, hostility and, in the case of stimulants, the potential for strokes and heart attacks. In October 2004, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) required a "black box" warning of suicide risks for all antidepressants prescribed to those under eighteen (18) years old. In August 2005, The Commission of the European Communities that represents twenty-five (25) countries issued the strongest warning yet against child antidepressant use, warning of the drug's potential to cause suicide attempts and suicidal ideation, aggression, hostility (predominantly aggression, oppositional behavior and anger), and/or related behavior. According to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, the stimulant drugs being prescribed to children are scheduled as abusive as opium, morphine and cocaine. In February 2006, an FDA Advisory Committee recommended a "black box" warning for stimulants, stating that they can cause heart attacks, strokes, and even death.

(h) As such, Guam's parents, without explicit protection, will be unable to give informed consent about whether they want their child to participate in such screening. It is the intent of I Liheslatura to prohibit the Guam Department of Education from conducting any mental health screening on school children without the informed consent of parents.

§ 6701. Informed consent required for mental health screening of students.
The Guam Department of Education shall:

(a) prohibit the use of schools for any mental health or psychological screening or testing of any student, whether a non- emancipated minor or emancipated minor, without the express written consent of the parent or guardian;

(b) the consent form must be in a clear and legible form and in compliance with any local or federal regulation, in the primary language of the parent, not less than forty-five (45) days in advance of any such screening; and

(c) the consent form must be signed by the parent or legally appointed guardian of each minor.

The Department of Education (DOE) does not condone or tolerate acts of sexual misconduct perpetrated against our students. Public education is grounded in public trust. In upholding that trust, we remain committed to creating and maintaining a public school system where no student will be fearful of coming to school or assigned worksite. Students must feel safe and secure at all times. DOE is committed to providing a supportive, secure and safe learning environment and workplace that is free of all forms of harassment and sexual misconduct. Whereas, it is the Board's intent to ensure students are free of sexual misconduct and harassment within the public school system as follows:

I. Purpose

Schools shall be free from harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting and sexual harassment and shall provide an environment that is conducive to learning. environment is free of any threat while attending school and all school sponsored activities. This policy is to allow students active participation in school affairs without fear and threat of harassment, intimidation or bullying, cyberbullying, sexting, sexual harassment.

This policy will also follow federal anti-discrimination laws enforced by the Office of Civil Rights (OCR). The statutes that OCR enforces includes Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504); and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Title II). Section 504 and Title II prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability.

II. Coverage

Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands Compilation of School Discipline Laws and Regulations

Prepared: March 31, 2023
Introduction

This compilation presents school discipline-related laws and regulations for U.S. states, U.S. territories, and the District of Columbia, and, where available, links to education agency websites or resources related to school discipline and student conduct. The discipline laws and regulations presented in this compilation have been categorized by type of specific discipline issue covered, according to an organizational framework developed by the National Center for Safe and Supportive Learning Environments (NCSSLE). For example, one major category encompasses all laws or regulations governing states or territories that mandate specific disciplinary sanctions (such as suspension) for specific offenses (such as drug possession on school grounds). The school discipline laws and regulations were compiled through exhaustive searches of legislative websites that identified all laws and regulations relevant to each specific category. Compiled materials were subsequently reviewed by state education agency (SEA) representatives in the 50 states, Washington D.C., and the U.S. territories.

Discipline categories were not mutually exclusive. Laws and regulations often appeared across multiple categories. For jurisdictions with more extensive laws covering a breadth of topical areas, relevant sections were excerpted from the larger legislative text for inclusion in the appropriate discipline category. Laws, ordered by chapter and section number, appear first within each category followed by regulations. All laws and regulations listed within categories in the compilation also appear in the sources cited section of the document, which lists laws by chapter and section number and title, and where available, includes active hyperlinks to source websites supported or maintained by state legislatures. Additional links to government websites or resources are provided at the end of this document.

Notes & Disclaimers

To the best of the preparer’s knowledge, this Compilation of School Discipline Laws and Regulations is complete and current as of March 2023. Readers should also note that the information in this document was compiled from individual sources that are created by each jurisdiction and which are maintained and updated with varying frequencies. Readers should consult the source information provided directly in order to check for updates to laws and regulations reported in this document or to conduct further research.

For further information, including definitions of the different policy categories, please refer to the Discipline Laws and Regulations Compendium posted on the Center's website.

REGULATIONS

§ 60-20-404. Searches by school personnel.

(a) Reasonable Suspicion

(1) Searches of students shall only be conducted when a school official has reasonable suspicion predicated on one or more of the following:

(i) Reliable reports or information from credible sources made known to school officials. If the source is anonymous, the informant must show that the information has a relationship with the school or students so as to give it credibility.

(ii) Suspicious or evasive behavior suggesting violation of a school policy or law, or concealment of contraband, weapons or stolen property.

(iii) Observation of a student engaging in prohibited conduct or being in a restricted area.

(2) The more of these factors that are found, the greater the inference of reasonable suspicion. The school official may also take into account the student's history in the development of reasonable suspicion.

(b) Reasonable Scope

(1) The scope of the search conducted must be reasonably related to the objective sought and the evidence searched for. The search shall be no more intrusive than necessary to serve the school's legitimate objectives. In determining if the search is related to the objectives sought, the school official should consider:

(i) The nature and severity of the violation to determine the permissible amount of intrusion into the student's privacy rights.

(ii) The area to be searched so that it will be no more extensive than required to serve the school's legitimate objectives.

(iii) The time and place where the search is conducted so that it will be as close as possible to the time and place of the suspected violation.

(iv) The duration of the search so that it will be no longer than necessary to serve the school's legitimate objectives.

(2) Whenever reasonably possible the search should be conducted by school official who is the same sex as the student to be searched.

(c) Locker, Automobile and Desk Searches Searches of lockers, desks, storage spaces and other property owned jointly by the PSS and the student may be conducted whenever reasonable suspicion exists to believe that contraband, weapons or prohibited items are concealed therein. Notice of the joint ownership of lockers and
desks shall be given to the student body at the beginning of each school year or more often as required.
(See form 2150 for an example of such a notice).
(d) Canine Searches
Canine searches shall never be conducted on a student's person and if undertaken, shall be restricted to desks, lockers and parking lots.
(e) Surveillance
Surveillance shall only be conducted in hallways, school buses and other areas open to public view where the students are permitted.
(f) Consent Searches
Whenever possible the student's voluntary informed consent shall be sought before a search is conducted. However, searches normally should not be based solely on consent.
(g) Police Involvement
Police involvement shall be sought whenever school officials uncover evidence of a violation of Commonwealth or federal law or when school officials deem such involvement necessary or helpful in maintaining school discipline or safety.
(h) Reports
After a search has been conducted, school officials shall prepare a written report, specifically detailing the objectives of the search, the scope of the search, and the circumstances and information giving rise to reasonable suspicion for the search. Copies of the report shall be immediately filed with the Commissioner of Education and PSS legal counsel.
§ 60-20-462. Student vehicle use.
Building principals have the authority to regulate student use of automobiles at school. Use of school property for student parking purposes is a privilege that may be denied due to violation of PSS regulations and school policies. Student vehicles parked on PSS property are subject to search by

Restraint and Seclusion

LAWS
No relevant laws found.

REGULATIONS
§ 60-20-490. Policy.
The Board of Education believes that maintaining an orderly, safe environment conducive to learning is an expectation of all staff members of the CNMI Public School System. An individual who is a teacher, administrator or school employee may, within the scope of that person's employment, use the amount of force as is reasonable and necessary to accomplish the following purposes:
(a) To retrain a student from an act of wrongdoing;
(b) To quell a disturbance threatening physical injury to self or others.
§ 60-20-491. Definitions.
(a) "Extended restraint": A physical restraint the duration of which is more than twenty minutes. Extended restraints increase the risk of injury and, therefore, require additional written documentation as described in this regulation.
(b) "Physical escort": Touching or holding a student without the use of force for the purpose of directing the student.

(c) "Physical restraint": The use of bodily force to limit a student's freedom of movement.

(d) "Restraint" - Other: Limiting the physical freedom of an individual student by mechanical means or seclusion in a limited space or location, or temporarily controlling the behavior of a student by chemical means. The use of chemical or mechanical restraint is prohibited unless explicitly authorized by a physician and approved in writing by the parent or guardian.

1. "Mechanical Restraint": The use of a physical device to restrict the movement of a student or the movement or normal function of a portion of his or her body. A protective or stabilizing device ordered by a physician shall not be considered mechanical restraint.

2. "Seclusion Restraint": Physically confining a student alone in a room or limited space without access to school staff. The use of "time out" procedures during which a staff member remains accessible to the student shall not be considered "seclusion restraint."

3. "Chemical restraint": The administration of medication for the purpose of restraint.

§ 60-20-493. Determining when physical restraint may be used.

(a) Use of restraint. Physical restraint may be used only in the following circumstances:

1. Non-physical interventions would not be effective; and

2. The student's behavior poses a threat of imminent, serious, physical harm to self and/or others.

(b) Limitations on use of restraint. Physical restraint in a public education program shall be limited to the use of such reasonable force as is necessary to protect a student or another member of the school community from assault or imminent, serious, physical harm.

(c) Prohibitions. Physical restraint is prohibited in the following circumstances:

1. As a means of punishment; or

2. For the convenience of staff; or

3. As a substitute for less restrictive alternatives; or

4. As a response to property destruction, disruption of school order, a student's refusal to comply with a school rule or staff directive, or verbal threats that do not constitute a threat of imminent, serious, physical harm; or*

(d) Referral to law enforcement or other public agencies. Nothing in these regulations prohibits:

1. The right of any individual to report to appropriate authorities a crime committed by a student or other individual;

2. Law enforcement, judicial authorities, or school security personnel from exercising their responsibilities, including the physical detainment of a student or other person alleged to have committed a crime or posing a, security risk; or

3. The exercise of an individual's responsibilities as a mandated reporter pursuant to BOE, CNMI and Federal regulation. These regulations shall not be used to deter any individual from reporting neglect or abuse to an appropriate public agency.

§ 60-20-494. Proper administration of physical restraint.

(a) Trained personnel. Only school personnel who have received training pursuant to this subpart shall administer physical restraint on students. Whenever possible, the administration of a restraint shall be witnessed by at least one adult who does not participate in the restraint. The training requirements contained herein shall not preclude a teacher or employee of PSS from using reasonable force to protect students, other persons or themselves from assault or imminent, serious, physical harm.

(b) Use of force. A person administering a physical restraint shall use only the amount of force necessary to protect the student or others from physical injury or harm.
(c) Safest method. A person administering physical restraint shall use the safest method available and appropriate to the situation subject to the safety requirements. Floor or prone restraints shall be prohibited unless the staff member administering the restraint has received in-depth training and, in the judgment of the trained staff member, such method is required to provide safety for the student or others present;

(d) Duration of restraint. A person administering physical restraint shall discontinue such restraint as soon as possible. If, due to unusual circumstances, a restraint continues for more than twenty minutes, it shall be considered an "extended restraint" for purposes of the reporting requirements.

(e) Safety requirements. Additional requirements for the use of physical restraint:

1. No restraint shall be administered in such a way that the student is prevented from breathing or speaking. During the administration of a restraint, a staff member shall continuously monitor the physical status of the student, including skin color and respiration. A restraint shall be released immediately upon a determination by the staff member administering the restraint that the student is no longer at risk of causing imminent physical harm to him or herself or others.

2. Restraint shall be administered in such a way so as to prevent or minimize physical harm. If, at any time during a physical restraint, the student demonstrates significant physical distress, the student shall be released from the restraint immediately, and school staff shall take steps to seek medical assistance.

3. Program staff shall review and consider any known medical or psychological limitations and/or behavioral intervention plans regarding the use of physical restraint on an individual student.

4. Following the release of a student from a restraint, the program shall implement follow-up procedures. These procedures shall include reviewing the incident with the student to address the behavior that precipitated the restraint, reviewing the incident with the staff person(s) who administered the restraint to discuss whether proper restraint procedures were followed, and consideration of whether any follow-up is appropriate for students who witnessed the incident.

§ 60-20-495. Reporting requirements.

(a) Circumstances under which a physical restraint must be reported.

1. PSS staff shall report the use of physical restraint after administration of a physical restraint that results in any injury to a student or staff member, or any physical restraint of duration longer than five minutes.

(b) Informing school administration.

1. The PSS staff who administered the restraint shall verbally inform the administration of the restraint as soon as possible and by written report no later than the next school working day.

2. The written report shall be provided to the principal or his/her designee, except that the principal or director shall prepare the report if the principal or director has administered the restraint.

3. The principal or director or his/her designee shall maintain an on-going record of all reported instances of physical restraint.

(c) Informing parents.

1. The principal or his/her designee shall verbally inform the student's parents or guardians of the restraint as soon as possible, and by written report no later than three school working days following the use of restraint.

(d) Contents of report. The written report shall include:

1. The names and job titles of the staff who administered the restraint, and observers, if any; the date of the restraint; the time the restraint began and ended; and the name of the administrator who was verbally informed following the restraint.

2. A description of the activity in which the restrained student and other students and staff in the same room or vicinity were engaged immediately preceding the use of physical restraint; the behavior that prompted the restraint; the efforts made to de-escalate the situation; alternatives to restraint that were attempted; and the justification for initiating physical restraint.

(3) A description of the administration of the restraint including the holds used and reasons such holds were necessary; the student's behavior and reactions during the restraint; how the restraint ended; and documentation of injury to the student and/or staff, if any, during the restraint and any medical care provided.

(4) For extended restraints, the written report shall describe the alternatives to extended restraint that were attempted, the outcome of those efforts, and the justification for administering the extended restraint.

(5) Information regarding any further action(s) that the school has taken or may take, including any disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed on the student.

(6) Information regarding opportunities for the student's parents or guardians to discuss with school officials the administration of the restraint, any disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed on the student, and/or any other related matter.

If the parent/guardian is unable to come for the student, the principal/designee may ask the parent/guardian for permission to send the student home. If the parent/guardian cannot be reached or if the above request is refused, the student must remain on school property until the close of the school day.

(f) The student's parent or guardian shall also be notified, in writing, on the day the suspension decision is made of the reason(s) for the suspension and the right of the student or parent or guardian to appeal the suspension to the Commissioner of Education within ten calendar days of the notification. Copies of all notifications shall be sent to the Commissioner of Education and the PSS legal counsel.

(g) The appeal procedures for suspensions of less than ten days are described in section (h) of this section (below). The appeal procedures for suspensions of ten days or more are described in § 60-20-452.

If the Commissioner of Education or designee finds that the student was suspended unfairly or unjustly, or that the suspension was inappropriate given the nature of the alleged offense, or that the student suffered undue consequences or penalties, the suspension may be overturned and any reference to the suspension in school records will be expunged. Such findings shall be made in writing within ten school days of the conference.

§ 60-20-450. Expulsion.

(a) Expulsion is permanent exclusion from public school attendance, school activities and school property. Expulsion shall be used only in severe cases, or where other means of corrective disciplinary action have failed, or where no other reasonable alternatives are available. An expulsion may be § 60-20-452. Hearing procedures.

(a) A due process hearing will be held if requested by the student parent/guardian for suspensions of more than ten days and expulsions. The hearing will be closed unless the student, parent/guardian or others having custodial care requests an open hearing.

(b) Upon a determination by the principal or the Commissioner of Education that a suspension of more than ten days or an expulsion is necessary, the student and his/her parents or guardians must be sent on the same day the suspension or expulsion recommendation is made, a copy of PSS's student disciplinary policy and written notice of the following:

(1) The Public School System's intent to suspend the student for more than ten days or to expel the student;
(2) The charges that necessitate the suspension or expulsion;
(3) That a full and fair hearing will be held before an impartial adjudicator if requested, in writing, within ten days of notification; and
(4) Failure to request a hearing, in writing, within ten school days after being notified of the Public School System's intention to suspend or expel the student shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing.

(c) In the event that a hearing is requested, the student may not be suspended for more than ten consecutive school days before the hearing is held and written notice of the following will be sent to the parents or guardian of the student:

(1) The place, date and time of the proposed hearing (allowing sufficient time for a defense to be prepared);
(2) The student's right to legal counsel at his/her own expense;
(3) That the student will be given the opportunity to present evidence at the hearing including the testimony of witnesses;
(4) That the student will be given the opportunity to cross-examine opposing witnesses at the hearing; and
(5) The availability of a written record of the hearing. This section shall not be construed to prohibit the use of a recording device to record the hearing.

(d) Within ten school days, if practicable, after a hearing is requested in writing, the hearing shall be held. The hearing shall be an informal proceeding where relaxed evidence rules will apply.
(e) The Commissioner of Education or his/her designee shall preside and ensure that all of the aforementioned rights are afforded the student.

(f) If, based on the evidence presented at the hearing, the Commissioner of Education or his/her designee finds that the student has committed an act which warrants disciplinary action, he or she may order any appropriate disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion.

(g) When determining whether the disciplinary action and/or the length of suspension/expulsion is appropriate, the Commissioner of Education or his/her designee may consider the severity of the offense, prior disciplinary actions taken against the student by the Public School System and any other prior bad acts of the student.

(h) Within ten school days after the conclusion of the hearing, the Commissioner of Education or his/her designee shall inform the student, parent or guardian of his/her decision. The decision must be in the form of a final, written opinion regarding whether or not any disciplinary action, such as expulsion or suspension, is warranted.

§ 60-20-454. Appeal to the Board of Education.

(a) The student and/or his or her parent or guardian shall have the right to appeal to the Commissioner of Education's or his/her designee's decision regarding a suspension of more than ten days or an expulsion to the Board of Education.

(b) The Board of Education must be notified, in writing, of the student's and/or parent or guardian's desire to appeal within ten school days from the date the student, parent or guardian was informed of the disciplinary decision.

(c) Once a disciplinary decision is appealed, the Board shall meet to review the decision within thirty calendar days of when the written notice of the appeal is received by the Board.

(d) The disciplinary decision of the Commissioner of Education or his/her designee shall remain in effect until the Board issues its own decision.

(e) The Board's decision on appeal shall be based solely on the record developed at the expulsion or suspension hearing and the Commissioner of Education or designee's written opinion. The Board shall review the suspension or expulsion solely on the record of the hearing and decision of the Commissioner of Education or his/her designee. The Board shall receive no new evidence.

(f) At the hearing the sole issue for the Board to determine is whether the Commissioner of Education's or his/her designee's decision to suspend or expel the student constitutes an abuse of authority. The Board of Education shall render its decision by a majority vote of those members in attendance.

(g) The Board does not have the authority to modify the Commissioner of Education's or his/her designee's expulsion decision. In such cases, the Board may either uphold the Commissioner of Education's decision, overturn it completely, or overturn it and order that a new hearing be conducted in compliance with their order.

REGULATIONS

§ 60-20-530. Alternative learning settings.

(a) Pursuant to CNMI law (3 CMC § 1132), the Board "shall establish and provide such academic and vocational programs as are appropriate and beneficial to the students and shall serve the needs of the community." As part of this responsibility, the Board has adopted this section to address instructional programs for students at-risk and to establish alternative learning settings to enable students to achieve their educational goals and requirements, such as grade promotions and high school graduation.

(b) Advanced Development Institute (ADI)

(1) ADI is an alternative high school program. The purpose of ADI is to allow students aged sixteen and older, who have not completed high school, to achieve success by making a positive connection with academic and vocational training, employers and work, mentors and tutors, families and community in an atmosphere that is welcoming, comfortable and sensitive to their individual needs, skills and learning styles. ADI teaches students to develop their critical, creative, communication and occupational skills through course offerings including reading and writing, consumer economics, health, government and law, occupational knowledge, and community resources. Graduates of ADI move into the private and public workforce with the skills necessary to achieve success.

(2) The CNMI Board of Education is authorized by law and Board regulations to award diplomas for secondary education. Graduates of ADI must complete two phases to receive an alternative high school diploma. The first phase consists of the ADI academic courses, including English, math, community resources, consumer economics, government and law, occupational knowledge and health. Five academic courses in the first phase must be passed. The second phase requires the students to gain career experience through a vocational or occupational program at a post-secondary institution or by working or volunteering in the community.

(3) A minimum of ninety minutes of daily instructional time shall be provided to students in the alternative high school program of ADI. The subjects are the academic courses in the first phase listed above. Any departure from the time and/or subject requirements will require express prior approval from the Commissioner of Education that is subject to Board review upon request.

(c) Lina'la' Malawasch Academy (LMA)

The Lina'la' Malawasch Academy (LMA) is an alternative learning setting for students grades seven and eight who have demonstrated behavioral problems that require intervention. Lina'la' malawasch means life, well-being and a new beginning in the Chamorro and Carolinian languages. The goal of LMA is to offer a second chance to students by creating an environment for students to improve their behavior, attendance and academic performance to enable them to reenter the general student population and proceed towards graduation from high school. The academic requirements for LMA students are similar to the PSS requirements and Board regulations regarding other junior high school students.

(a) In all cases, upon arriving on campus, DPS personnel must report first to the principal's office to inform the principal of the student(s) sought by DPS and to explain the purpose of their visit to the school. The only exception to first reporting to the principal's office is when there is a crime in progress. DPS then has the right to make an immediate arrest and report afterwards to the principal's office. The principal shall immediately notify the parent/guardian of a student who has been arrested by DPS on campus.

(b) In cases involving a felony when DPS personnel wish to question a student during school hours, the parents must be informed before such questioning may begin. The principal may be present during the questioning. A student may be released to DPS if DPS demonstrates to the school that such release is necessary in the interests of law enforcement and public safety, such as a copy of a warrant or...
indictment. The principal shall immediately notify the parent/guardian of a student who has been released to DPS.

(c) In cases involving a misdemeanor, DPS will make every effort to locate and question a student involved in or knowledgeable of a misdemeanor outside of school operating hours and will only resort to questioning a student during school hours when all other methods fail. In the event that questioning a student during school hours is necessary, the parent must be informed before such questioning may begin and DPS may only question a student when a principal is present. A principal does not need to release a student to DPS in cases involving a misdemeanor.

If the parent/guardian cannot be reached or if the above request is refused, the student must remain on school property until the close of the school day.

(f) The student's parent or guardian shall also be notified, in writing, on the day the suspension decision is made of the reason(s) for the suspension and the right of the student or parent or guardian to appeal the suspension to the Commissioner of Education within ten calendar days of the notification. If the Commissioner of Education or designee finds that the student was suspended unfairly or unjustly, or that the suspension was inappropriate given the nature of the alleged offense, or that the student suffered undue consequences or penalties, the suspension may be overturned and any reference to the suspension in school records will be expunged. Such findings shall be made in writing within ten school days of the conference.

§ 60-20-458. Enrollment or return following suspension and/or expulsion.

(a)(1) No student shall be readmitted, or permitted to enroll or otherwise attend school (except as may otherwise be required by law), following a suspension or expulsion from any school until the PSS has conducted a conference to review the conduct that resulted in the expulsion or suspension, and any remedial actions needed to prevent any future occurrences of such or related conduct

REGULATIONS

§ 60-20-404. Searches by school personnel.

(a) Reasonable Suspicion

(1) Searches of students shall only be conducted when a school official has reasonable suspicion predicated on one or more of the following:

   (i) Reliable reports or information from credible sources made known to school officials. If the source is anonymous, the informant must show that the information has a relationship with the school or students so as to give it credibility.

   (ii) Suspicious or evasive behavior suggesting violation of a school policy or law, or concealment of contraband, weapons or stolen property.

   (iii) Observation of a student engaging in prohibited conduct or being in a restricted area.

(2) The more of these factors that are found, the greater the inference of reasonable suspicion. The school official may also take into account the student's history in the development of reasonable suspicion.

(b) Reasonable Scope

(1) The scope of the search conducted must be reasonably related to the objective sought and the evidence searched for. The search shall be no more intrusive than necessary to serve the school's legitimate objectives. In determining if the search is related to the objectives sought, the school official should consider:

   (i) The nature and severity of the violation to determine the permissible amount of intrusion into the student's privacy rights.

   (ii) The area to be searched so that it will be no more extensive than required to serve the school's legitimate objectives.
(iii) The time and place where the search is conducted so that it will be as close as possible to the time and place of the suspected violation.

(iv) The duration of the search so that it will be no longer than necessary to serve the school's legitimate objectives.

(2) Whenever reasonably possible the search should be conducted by school official who is the same sex as the student to be searched.

(c) Locker, Automobile and Desk Searches Searches of lockers, desks, storage spaces and other property owned jointly by the PSS and the student may be conducted whenever reasonable suspicion exists to believe that contraband, weapons or prohibited items are concealed therein. Notice of the joint ownership of lockers and
desks shall be given to the student body at the beginning of each school year or more often as required.
(See form 2150 for an example of such a notice).

(d) Canine Searches
Canine searches shall never be conducted on a student's person and if undertaken, shall be restricted to desks, lockers and parking lots.

(e) Surveillance
Surveillance shall only be conducted in hallways, school buses and other areas open to public view where the students are permitted.

(f) Consent Searches
Whenever possible the student's voluntary informed consent shall be sought before a search is conducted. However, searches normally should not be based solely on consent.

(g) Police Involvement
Police involvement shall be sought whenever school officials uncover evidence of a violation of Commonwealth or federal law or when school officials deem such involvement necessary or helpful in maintaining school discipline or safety.

(h) Reports
After a search has been conducted, school officials shall prepare a written report, specifically detailing the objectives of the search, the scope of the search, and the circumstances and information giving rise to reasonable suspicion for the search. Copies of the report shall be immediately filed with the Commissioner of Education and PSS legal counsel.

§ 60-20-406. Releasing and referring students to the Department of Public Safety.
The following guidelines are to be used by school administrators when considering referring students to the Department of Public Safety (DPS) for conduct committed on campus:

(a) It is the responsibility of all citizens who have direct knowledge of a committed felony to report it to
DPS. If a student is suspected of committing a felony, the school administrator must report it to DPS.
(See also policy and regulation 2670 and § 60-20-472 - Reporting Violent Behavior and Student Abuse.)

(b) In cases involving a misdemeanor, the principal must exercise his/her professional judgment whether to report the student to DPS. In general, the more serious the misdemeanor, the greater likelihood it should be referred to DPS. Minor infractions (e.g. a minor caught smoking a cigarette) should be dealt with at the school level.

(c) All incidents involving the use of dangerous weapons should be reported to DPS. (See policy and regulation 2670.)

(d) If a principal or school administrator has evidence of a crime in progress, he/she has the authority to make a citizen’s arrest and then must report the crime to DPS immediately.
(e) Upon arriving on campus, DPS personnel must report first to the principal's office. The only exception to first reporting to principal's office is when there is a crime in progress. DPS then has the right to make an immediate arrest and report afterwards to the principal's office.

(g) Whenever a student is turned over to DPS, it is the responsibility of the school administrator to immediately notify the student's parent/guardian.

§ 60-20-408. Employees of Department of Public Safety on campus.
Whenever a student is on campus during school operating hours and is wanted by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) for an alleged offense(s) not reported by the school, the following guidelines shall apply:

The only exception to first reporting to the principal's office is when there is a crime in progress. DPS then has the right to make an immediate arrest and report afterwards to the principal's office. The principal shall immediately notify the parent/guardian of a student who has been arrested by DPS on campus.

(b) In cases involving a felony when DPS personnel wish to question a student during school hours, the parents must be informed before such questioning may begin. The principal may be present during the questioning. A student may be released to DPS if DPS demonstrates to the school that such release is necessary in the interests of law enforcement and public safety, such as a copy of a warrant or indictment. The principal shall immediately notify the parent/guardian of a student who has been released to DPS.

(c) In cases involving a misdemeanor, DPS will make every effort to locate and question a student involved in or knowledgeable of a misdemeanor outside of school operating hours and will only resort to questioning a student during school hours when all other methods fail. In the event that questioning a student during school hours is necessary, the parent must be informed before such questioning may begin and DPS may only question a student when a principal is present. A principal does not need to release a student to DPS in cases involving a misdemeanor.

PSS officials will cooperate fully with all law enforcement agencies in the prevention of crimes against PSS property as well as in the prosecution of persons involved in such conduct.
(b) The PSS will seek restitution from students and other persons who have damaged or destroyed PSS property, including text books and other instructional materials. Parents of students who lose or damage school property shall reimburse the school for the value of the lost or damaged articles.
(c) The amount of restitution to PSS for lost, stolen or damaged property shall be determined by the fair value of the lost or stolen property or the cost of reasonable repair if the item is not damaged beyond repair as determined by the principal or Commissioner.
(d) School principals are responsible for enforcing this section and imposing any appropriate discipline and fines.

Introduction

This compilation presents school discipline-related laws and regulations for U.S. states, U.S. territories, and the District of Columbia, and, where available, links to education agency websites or resources related to school discipline and student conduct. The discipline laws and regulations presented in this compilation have been categorized by type of specific discipline issue covered, according to an organizational framework developed by the National Center for Safe and Supportive Learning Environments (NCSSLE). For example, one major category encompasses all laws or regulations governing states or territories that mandate specific disciplinary sanctions (such as suspension) for specific offenses (such as drug possession on school grounds). The school discipline laws and regulations were compiled through exhaustive searches of legislative websites that identified all laws and regulations relevant to each specific category. Compiled materials were subsequently reviewed by state education agency (SEA) representatives in the 50 states, Washington D.C., and the U.S. territories.

Discipline categories were not mutually exclusive. Laws and regulations often appeared across multiple categories. For jurisdictions with more extensive laws covering a breadth of topical areas, relevant sections were excerpted from the larger legislative text for inclusion in the appropriate discipline category. Laws, ordered by chapter and section number, appear first within each category followed by regulations. All laws and regulations listed within categories in the compilation also appear in the sources cited section of the document, which lists laws by chapter and section number and title, and where available, includes active hyperlinks to source websites supported or maintained by state legislatures. Additional links to government websites or resources are provided at the end of this document.

LAWS

Article II, Section 5, of the Constitution of Puerto Rico guarantees that "[e]very person has the right to an education which shall be directed to the full development of the human personality and to the strengthening of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms."

The Legislature is duty bound to respond with legislation that guarantees the rights and establishes the responsibilities of the components of the school community in order to reduce the problem of violence in the schools. This bill shall create the Bill of Rights and Responsibilities of the School Community for Security in the Schools and sets forth the rights and duties of the school community members in order to maintain a climate of peace in the schools.

This Bill of Rights and Responsibilities integrates the external and surrounding community to the schools, as well as the Commonwealth and municipal government dependencies and the private sector, in seeking to institute various efforts directed toward the reduction of acts of violence within the schools.

(a) To establish and promulgate the General Regulations for the Students of the Puerto Rico Public Education System and the Internal Security Regulations and give notice thereof by means of a copy and orientations to the parents and students of the public education system. Said regulations shall be adopted pursuant to §§ 2101 et seq. of Title 3, known as the "Uniform Administrative Procedures Act of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico", and shall be filed immediately after approval thereof.

(b) The administrative authorities, as well as the teaching and non-teaching personnel, shall have the duty to ensure compliance with the General Regulations for the Student of the Puerto Rico Public Education System and the Internal Security Regulations, especially provisions related to the codes of conduct and behavior.

(c) To establish and promulgate the Crisis Management Strategic Plan for violent incidents in schools to give notice and copy thereof to the parents, tutors and students of the Public Education System.

(d) To provide administrative support to achieve compliance with the school security plans established by the student councils. Said school security plans shall include initiatives directed toward:

   (1) Identifying the security needs of the schools.
   (2) Providing clean physical facilities in a safe environment.
   (3) Implementing training programs for the teachers, non-teaching personnel and student groups in the areas of violence prevention and conflict management.

(e) To redesign those physical facilities whose conditions may influence the development of delinquent or violent activities. The schools should be designed in such a manner so as to prevent the free access of unauthorized persons into the schools and to promote that the school authorities be able to visually supervise student activities in all areas.

(f) The Department of Education shall establish guidelines for the school directors to prepare a report on violent and non-violent incidents within the school premises. Using a standard format, the Director shall gather the information and analyze the data. Subsequently, the Director shall prepare a quarterly report of these findings and submit the same to the School Life Quality Program.
(g) School authorities shall be responsible for coordinating with the Puerto Rico Police the installation of security devices such as video cameras and alarm systems in schools that are declared unsafe by the Department of Education.

(h) The Department of Education shall be responsible for the training of the teaching and administrative personnel on how to manage students with discipline and violence problems. This training shall be based upon conflict management and the early identification of violent situations. The Department of Education is responsible for keeping all its personnel duly informed about the rules for security and violence prevention, so they may know which steps to take in a crisis situation.

(i) The Department of Education shall promote the development of rapid response plans for crisis situations. Among these are plans for evacuation in case of fire, earthquakes, gas leaks and bomb or terrorist threats. Each component of the school system shall clearly understand its role in the crisis plan. The plan shall include a strategy for communicating with security agencies such as the Puerto Rico Police, the Firefighters Corps, Medical Emergencies [Corps.] and the Commonwealth Emergency Management and Disaster Administration Agency. Moreover, a plan shall be established for communicating with the parents and the communications media in case of emergency.

(j) The Department of Education shall ensure compliance with the prevention and orientation programs directed toward the reduction of violent incidents and conflict management in the schools. These training programs shall emphasize problem solving, social interaction, peer pressure management, understanding of values and conflict management skills.

(k) The Department of Education shall use alternative educational environments for those students who have faced school violence problems so as to guarantee a safe school community.

18 L.P.R.A. § 17. Elected officers and government agencies.

(a) Elected officers are responsible for promoting legislation directed toward the reduction of school violence and the development of safe schools, provided that the resources of the Commonwealth so allow.

(b) Police officers and School Guards I and II shall be responsible for institutional order within one hundred (100) meters surrounding the school premises and in school sponsored activities, in accordance with the regulations established to such effects. It is necessary that these officers develop positive relationships with the components of the school community and exert maximum efforts to achieve a suitable environment for the development of the habit of responsibility and cooperation, and of sound school discipline.

(c) To give conferences and hold assemblies directed toward discussing topics such as school violence prevention, prevention of drug use in the schools, conflict management in the school environment, etc.

(d) Government agencies shall support and actively participate in school activities in order to promote a safe and wholesome environment.

(e) To support research projects directed toward the study of the school violence problem. The information from these research projects may serve as the foundation upon which to generate legislation or initiatives that reduce violence in our schools.

(f) To provide the necessary funds for the implementation of security initiatives in the schools, such as the installation of security devices, programs for monitoring the statistics of criminal and violent incidents in the schools, etc.

(g) To establish interagency collaborative agreements with federal agencies, municipalities and the private sector in order to promote school security.
18 L.P.R.A. § 141k. Rules and regulations.
The Secretary is hereby empowered to adopt the necessary rules and regulations for the implementation of this chapter, including the requirements that must be met by School Security Corps candidates. These rules and regulations shall include the requirement of undergoing Police Academy training for a period of not less than three (3) months, which shall be a part of the trial period of candidates. Such regulations shall conform to the provisions of present §§ 2101 et seq. of Title 3, known as the "Uniform Administrative Procedures Act of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico".

3 L.P.R.A. § 9802i. Duties and responsibilities of the School Principal.
In addition to the duties and responsibilities established by regulations, the School Principal shall:

(o) Implement disciplinary measures for students in accordance with the public policy, directives, standards, rules, and regulations promulgated by the Secretary.

3 L.P.R.A. § 9809b. Disciplinary measures and sanctions.
(a) The disciplinary measures taken by the school's administrative personnel must be directed at improving student behavior, thereby creating a school environment that is safe and optimal for learning and improving a student's academic performance. The disciplinary process shall be preventive, progressive, just, and reasonable for rehabilitation and re-education purposes, while upholding the rights of the school community in general. For such purposes, if a student undergoes a disciplinary process or an evaluation by a psychologist or a counselor, said process shall be completed within fifteen (15) days from the commencement thereof.

(b) The strategies used to address disciplinary issues or toxic conduct must be directed at repairing the damage done and restoring the respect and peaceful coexistence that must prevail in the school community and, specifically, to reintegrate students into the school community.

(c) Teachers shall be responsible for the school's discipline, both inside and outside of the classrooms, thereby ensuring that students satisfy this requirement. They shall refer disciplinary issues to the School Principal after having exhausted all resources available to them, such as, but not limited to: restorative measures, mediation, interviews, and meetings with the student, his guardian, or the interdisciplinary team, or referring the student to the homeroom teacher, the school's social worker, or a professional counselor, among others.

(d) Before imposing any sanction or taking any disciplinary action, all intervention and counseling resources available to students, parents, custodians, or guardians must be exhausted. These measures must be documented and filed in the student's record. Moreover, the student subject to the disciplinary measures and the affected party shall always be afforded an opportunity to express themselves and be heard in an orderly, timely, and respectful manner.

(e) An out-of-school suspension is an exclusionary discipline practice that should only be implemented under special circumstances and only when the well-being of the students or the school's community is at risk. Under any other circumstances, school principals shall implement practices that are not exclusionary, such as mediation and restorative practices, among others.

(f) The Secretary shall promulgate school discipline regulations in order to ensure that the works of the Public Education System remain uninterrupted, and each Regional Office of Education shall implement the disciplinary practices that are best suited to the particular needs of their students, pursuant to the aforementioned regulations. Such regulations shall be consistent with the applicable laws in our jurisdiction related to minors.

(g) Each Regional Office of Education shall submit a copy of the proposed code of conduct to the personnel of the central offices of the Department, before June 1st of each year, for the review and authorization thereof. The codes of conduct shall not be valid or effective insofar as the aforementioned process has been carried out and the approval thereof has been notified in writing to the Regional Office of Education.

(h) No student shall be prevented from exercising his right to an education. No corrective measures that harm a student's physical integrity or violates his dignity may be imposed.

(i) The disciplinary measures imposed shall be proportional to the offense and must contribute to improving the student's conduct.

The goal of alternative education is to develop enterprising and productive citizens with high academic, community, and leadership competencies who are committed to their personal development as well as that of their family and community setting.

Based on the foregoing, this Legislative Assembly hereby resolves and declares that alternative education is governed in Puerto Rico by the following principles:

(a) All children and youths have the right to quality education.

(b) All school dropouts and at-risk children and youths represent a population with full potential for human development thus requiring an education adjusted to their socioeconomic and educational needs and to their unique interests.

(c) Taking into consideration the high incidence of school dropouts and at-risk children and youths, alternative education shall be considered a curriculum within the educational system in Puerto Rico.

(d) Alternative education for school dropouts and at-risk children and youths should be characterized by its focus on them, the promotion of opportunities for participation, academic preparation, physical and sports training, trust in their capabilities, discipline, respect for human dignity, the opportunity to explore and develop their talents, including the means of artistic expression, occupational education, and technological training that provides them with self-management tools.

(e) The State recognizes the benefits of partnerships with the municipalities of Puerto Rico and municipal consortiums, nonprofit government and nongovernmental organizations, and nonprofit higher education institutions, both from the government and the nongovernment sectors, and their contributions to improve the quality of life of Puerto Rico. The Government and the entities and institutions that have purposes similar to the purposes of this chapter should establish a partnership so they can work in conjunction to expedite the resources and promote the conditions that shall guarantee the continuity of services.

(f) School dropouts and at-risk children and youths need varied education models of proven effectiveness in satisfying the needs and unique characteristics of this population.

(g) In order to effectively address the unique needs and interests of their students, alternative education entities shall have autonomy and flexibility relating to its administration, operations, and curriculum, in accordance with its objectives and education model, but shall be required to comply with the parameters and meet the requirements established both in this chapter and the regulations adopted thereunder. They shall also meet all the licensing requirements set forth by the Puerto Rico Education Council, pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 1 of July 26, 2010, as amended.

Likewise, and considering that the traditional academic curriculums are not governed by inflexible parameters that prevent what should be their natural evolution, our aim is that, when the time comes, the alternative model may be transformed so as to embrace, support, and integrally fulfill the unique interests and needs of gifted students in Puerto Rico. This could be achieved by creating education centers specifically geared to this population, or by entering into collaboration agreements between existing institutions and other entities with the expertise and proven experience working with this population. We believe that this shall be the next logical step to be taken once this education model has proven its reliability.

U.S. Virgin Islands
Compilation of School Discipline Laws and
Regulations

Prepared: March 31, 2023
Introduction

This compilation presents school discipline-related laws and regulations for U.S. states, U.S. territories, and the District of Columbia, and, where available, links to education agency websites or resources related to school discipline and student conduct. The discipline laws and regulations presented in this compilation have been categorized by type of specific discipline issue covered, according to an organizational framework developed by the National Center for Safe and Supportive Learning Environments (NCSSLE). For example, one major category encompasses all laws or regulations governing states or territories that mandate specific disciplinary sanctions (such as suspension) for specific offenses (such as drug possession on school grounds). The school discipline laws and regulations were compiled through exhaustive searches of legislative websites that identified all laws and regulations relevant to each specific category. Compiled materials were subsequently reviewed by state education agency (SEA) representatives in the 50 states, Washington D.C., and the U.S. territories.

Discipline categories were not mutually exclusive. Laws and regulations often appeared across multiple categories. For jurisdictions with more extensive laws covering a breadth of topical areas, relevant sections were excerpted from the larger legislative text for inclusion in the appropriate discipline category. Laws, ordered by chapter and section number, appear first within each category followed by regulations. All laws and regulations listed within categories in the compilation also appear in the sources cited section of the document, which lists laws by chapter and section number and title, and where available, includes active hyperlinks to source websites supported or maintained by state legislatures. Additional links to government websites or resources are provided at the end of this document.

CVIR 17-003-002. Virgin Islands Student discipline policy.

Philosophy of the Virgin Islands Board of Education

The primary objective of the Virgin Islands Public School System is to develop each student's potential for learning and to foster positive interpersonal relationships. If this is to be accomplished, it is necessary that the school environment be free of disruptions which interfere with teaching and learning activities. The student's conduct determines to a great extent the full development of his/her potential for learning and the development of positive relationships.

The purpose of this document is to assist the Department of Education, students, parents, teachers and school administrators in the maintenance of an environment which will enhance the achievement of the objective. To be fully effective, the Discipline Policy addresses not only the role of the parents, the students, and the school but also specifies areas relative to: responsibilities and rights of students, grounds for disciplinary action, and procedures to be followed for acts requiring disciplinary action.

Each school is permitted and encouraged to develop rules, procedures, and expectations for student conduct. While these may not conflict with direction provided in this discipline policy, broad latitude in dealing with school problems shall be afforded to each school so that student discipline may be responsive to particular problems in each individual school. Alternatives to Suspension

§ 761. Legislative findings; intent.
The Legislature of the United States Virgin Islands hereby finds that school violence is a problem in the territory's schools. The Legislature also finds that there needs to be a reshaping of the approach to combating school violence. The Legislature further finds that the imposition of penalties alone is an insufficient and ultimately unworkable device for curbing school violence. As such, the Legislature finds that there currently exist a need for the insertion of an in-school mechanism for assisting our youngsters with handling inter-personal and inter-group conflicts without resorting to violent behavior. The Legislature proposes to implement a school-based, conflict resolution education program. The intent of conflict resolution education and consequently this chapter is to reduce violence, vandalism, chronic absence, and suspension in Virgin Islands schools. The goals of conflict resolution education are as follows:

1. offer problem-solving processes that can improve the school climate;
2. offer Virgin Islands students an alternative to self-destructive violent behavior when faced with interpersonal and inter-group conflicts;
3. help students and teachers deepen their understanding of themselves and others, thus developing important life skills;
4. provide training in negotiation, mediation, and consensus decision making as a means of encouraging a high level of citizenship activity;
5. shift the responsibility for solving nonviolent conflicts to students so that adults can be free to concentrate more on teaching and less on discipline; and
6. create behavior management systems that are more effective than detention, suspension, or expulsion in order to deal with conflict in the school setting.

§ 823. Student eligibility and program criteria.
All programs funded pursuant to the provisions of this chapter must be positive and reflect strong parental and community involvement. In addition, specific programs must meet the following criteria:

(d) Disciplinary Programs.

1. Disciplinary programs serve the student who has a disruptive behavior in school or has committed an offense that warrants suspension, adjudication as a person in need of supervision, or expulsion from school according to the code of student conduct. For the purposes of this program, disruptive behavior is behavior that:
   (A) interferes with the student's own learning or the educational process of others and requires attention and assistance beyond that which the traditional program can provide, or results in frequent conflicts of a disruptive nature while the student is under the jurisdiction of the school either in or out of the classrooms; or
   (B) severely threatens the general welfare of the student or others with whom the student comes into contact.
2. The program includes, but is not necessarily limited to, in-school suspension, alternatives to expulsion, counseling centers, and crisis intervention centers.
3. Students who have been placed in detention or a court-adjudicated commitment program or a person adjudicated in need of supervision must be evaluated by school district personnel upon the completion of the program prior to the placement of the students into an educational program. Such students must not be automatically assigned to a disciplinary program upon re-entering the school system.
4. Prior to assigning a student to a disciplinary program of more than 10 days in duration, the insular superintendent shall attempt a continuum of education and student services to identify the causes of the disruptive behavior, to modify the behavior, or to provide more appropriate educational services to the student; however, students who have committed an offense which warrants expulsion according to the code of student conduct may be assigned to a disciplinary program without attempting a continuum of services.

PROCEDURES FOR SUSPENSIONS

Suspension of students from school should occur only if a careful study of all facts surrounding each individual case indicates that no other disciplinary approach is feasible. Student suspension without proper controls seems of little therapeutic value. Placing students out of the supervision of the school may possibly serve to increase their antisocial activities.

Putting children out of classes or suspending students for trivial matters is not a solution to the behavioral problem. It merely removes the problem or the offender from one locale to another.

Suspensions shall be of four(4) kinds:

1. Suspension requesting a parent conference with appropriate school personnel.
2. Suspension for a few days (one to five) within the school. In such a case, the student is denied the privilege of attending classes but must report daily to school. The student will be under the supervision of someone designated by the administrator. During this period, the student may be assigned special duties.
3. Suspension which requires the student to be away from the school premises from one day to five days.
4. Suspension for one to ten days

Administrators are encouraged to use more in-school suspensions in preference to out of school suspensions.

Suspensions should never result in a total of 5% of the school population being out of school.

The maximum suspension is ten(10) school days without requiring the Commissioner of Education's approval.

Suspensions should never replace expulsion.

No parent should be asked to voluntarily withdraw a student for a discipline problem, as a substitute for suspension or expulsion.

LAWS

§ 25. Protective hairstyles
(a) The Virgin Islands Department of Education, Virgin Islands Board of Education, a school district, college, university or school administrator may not create a dress code or policy that prohibits protective hairstyles from being worn in the school during school hours or school events; nor may a student be expelled or in any manner disciplined on the basis of a protective hairstyle worn by the student.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term, “protective hairstyle” includes but is not limited to such hairstyles as braids, locks, twists, cornrows, Bantu knots, afros and other styles in which the hair is tightly coiled or tightly curled.

§ 91. Expulsion of pupils; appeal.
(c) Notwithstanding subsection (b), the Commissioner of Education or the Virgin Islands Board of Education on appeal, may modify, in writing, the length of the expulsion on a case-by-case basis based on the specific circumstances surrounding each incident.

REGULATIONS

Level 1V Infractions and Disciplinary Responses
For students in Kindergarten to sixth grade, the disciplinary response procedure shall be: parental contact, ten days suspension from school, a written behavior contract which shall serve as a probation. In severe cases, the administrator may elect to consider recommending immediate expulsion. In selecting this action, the principal shall consider the age, prior discipline record, the seriousness of the behavior, the intent of the student, and if the health, safety, and welfare of other students and/or staff have been endangered. A violation of the probation during this period may cause the discipline response to be advanced to consideration of expulsion from school.

Due Process

LAWS

§ 91. Expulsion of pupils; appeal.

(a) The Commissioner of Education may authorize or order the expulsion from public school of any pupil guilty of gross misconduct or persistent disobedience, or having bad habits, or being in a physical condition detrimental to the best interests of the school, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Virgin Islands Board of Education. Any parent aggrieved by such expulsion may appeal to the Board for review of such order within 30 days after the date thereof. [...]

(d) Any parent or guardian aggrieved by such an expulsion may appeal to the Board of Education for review of such order within thirty (30) days after the date thereof.

REGULATIONS

CVIR 17-003-002. Virgin Islands Student discipline policy.

Due process for suspensions of ten (10) days or less

Step 1: The student must be told by the administrator/designee of the reasons for consideration of suspension.

Step 2: The student must be given an opportunity to present his/her side of the matter either verbally or in writing and must have the opportunity to present witnesses to the incident.

Step 3: The administrator/designee shall make a determination as to whether or not the student is guilty of the misconduct and, if so, what the terms of punishment will be. The student shall be informed of the determination. If the determination is to impose suspension, the notice of suspension shall be in writing.

Step 4: The administrator/designee shall report each suspension in writing to the student's parent or guardian and to the Superintendent or his/her designee. This report shall be mailed by certified mail or delivery initiated within twenty(24) hours of the start of the suspension or on the next regular work day. This report shall include the various incidents relating to the suspension or removal from classes and shall document specific facts with regard to times and dates of offenses and other undesirable behavior. Additionally the report shall include all efforts to assist the student (letters to parents, referrals to counselors, pupil personnel services, Departments of Health and Human Services etc.)

Reasonable and documented efforts shall be made to contact the parent or guardian prior to the start of the suspension. If the parent or guardian cannot be reached prior to the start of the suspension, the administrator or designee may determine that suspension will start without contact with the parent or guardian, but continued reasonable efforts to contact the parent or guardian shall be made.
Step 5: No later than seventy-two (72) hours after the suspension begins, the student and his/her parents shall have a right to a hearing with the administrator or designee. The administrator shall have the discretion to reduce or cancel the suspension if it is felt that it would be in the best interest of the student and the school to do so. The parent and student shall be informed of the administrator's decision and the reason therefor in writing within twenty-four (24) hours after the hearing.

Step 6: An educational planning conference shall be held each time any handicapped student has been suspended from school or transportation for total of ten (10) school days during any school year. The purpose of the conference shall be to determine if the placement is appropriate and if any changes must be made in order to more effectively deal with the student's behavior problem.

Step 7: At the discretion of the administrator or designee, a written behavior contract may be required upon return of the suspended student.

Step 8: If the parents feel that due process was not provided, they may further appeal the procedural due process provided by contacting the superintendent. The superintendent or designee shall discuss the matter with the parent and, if appropriate, schedule a meeting with the administrator, and the parent to further discuss the matter and rectify any procedural errors.

Due process procedure for suspension in excess of ten (10) days or expulsion

A student accused of a violation of the Virgin Islands Student Discipline Policy which, in the opinion of the administrator or his/her designated representative, may require expulsion from school or transportation shall be afforded the due process procedure described below. In emergency situations, these procedures may be modified if reasonable and documented efforts are made to provide substantially similar opportunities for due process.

Step 1: The student must be told by the administrator or designee of the reason(s) for consideration of suspension or expulsion.

Step 2: The student must be given the opportunity to present his/her side of the matter either verbally or in writing and must have the opportunity to present witnesses to the incident.

Step 3: The administrator or designee shall make a determination in writing as to whether or not the student is guilty of the misconduct and, if so, what the terms of punishment will be. The student shall be informed of the determination. If the administrator or designee determines that there are sufficient grounds for expulsion, then the administrator or designee shall inform the student that he/she is being suspended from school for ten (10) days and a recommendation for expulsion from school is being considered.

Step 4: The administrator or designee shall report in writing to the student's parent or guardian and the superintendent that the student has been suspended for ten (10) days and a recommendation for expulsion from school is being considered. The report shall be mailed by certified mail or delivery initiated within twenty-four (24) hours of the start of the ten (10) day suspension or on the next regular work day. This report shall include the various incidents relating to the suspension and recommended expulsion and shall document specific facts relating to times and dates of offenses and other undesirable behavior. Additionally, the report shall include all efforts to assist the student (letters to parents, referrals to counselors, pupil personnel services, Departments of Health and Human Services etc.)

Reasonable efforts shall be made to contact the parent or guardian prior to the start of the suspension. If the parent or guardian cannot be reached prior to the start of the suspension, the administrator or designee may determine that the suspension will start without prior contact with the parent or guardian.

Step 5: The principal shall convene the Student Review Team comprising of the administrator or designee, counselor and a teacher as soon as possible but not later than the fifth day of the suspension period to determine:

1. if there is documentation or evidence that the student has a disability requiring exceptional education services;
2. if any modification or adaptations need to be made within the school as an alternative to expulsion;
3. if a recommendation for expulsion is appropriate.

Step 6: The recommendation for expulsion will be referred to the superintendent for disposition. The superintendent or designee shall review the information provided by the Student Review Team, and no later than the seventh school day of the suspension, shall conduct a hearing with the parent, and student to determine if expulsion should be imposed.

At the time the parents and student are given notice of the expulsion hearing, they should be advised that they have the right to have a lawyer present, to confront and cross-examine witnesses, or to call witnesses to verify the student's version of the incident which led to the recommended expulsion.

During the hearing, the superintendent or designee has the right to limit witnesses at any time when there is a serious threat of disruption. The hearing shall be electronically recorded.

Step 7: If expulsion is determined to be the appropriate course of action, the superintendent shall submit the expulsion recommendation to the Commissioner of Education in writing within twenty-four hours or the next regular work day. The Superintendent shall include a detailed report by the administrator or designee on the incident, alternative measures, if applicable, taken prior to the recommendation of expulsion and a summary of the Student Review Team's findings.

Step 8: The Commissioner shall notify the parent or guardian in writing within forty-eight (48) hours that the student be expelled for a specific period of time. The written notification shall indicate the grounds for expulsion and the parent's right for appeal to the Board of Education within thirty (30) days of receipt of the expulsion notice.

Step 9: If the Board of education determines that any student should return to school after a specified period, a written behavior plan for the expelled student shall be developed by the school prior to the return of the expelled student to the school program. The plan shall be developed in cooperation with all parties including the student and parent or guardian to assure that the conduct leading to the expulsion will not recur in the future. If the student, parent or guardian refuse to cooperate, then the principal shall fashion a plan and inform the student and parent or guardian of the same. Substantial violations of this plan shall be considered a violation of the Virgin Islands Student Discipline Policy and may subject the student to suspension or expulsion.

Procedures for reentry of expelled students
Following the Commissioner of Education's action to expel a student, the student shall have no right to attend public schools in the Virgin Islands unless the Board of Education hears the appeal and reverses the decision of the Commissioner.

The Board of Education in its sole discretion and acting upon the evidence presented at the appeal hearing may revoke the existing expulsion and order a reentry plan. Failure of the student to abide by a reentry plan may be grounds for recommending permanent expulsion.

It is intended that the procedure to be followed in developing reentry plans shall be flexible, but shall require a commitment on the part of the student and his/her parent or guardian to cooperate with school authorities in reasonably assuring that the behavior which led to the original expulsion will not recur.
Reentry plans are to be developed when appropriate, following the procedures outlined below. The decision to recommend a reentry shall be the prerogative of the Board of Education.

Step 1: After the appeal hearing, and if there is reason to believe that reentry would be in the best interest of the student and that reentry would not adversely impact the orderly conduct of the school, the Board may direct the Commissioner to develop a reentry plan for the student.

Step 2: The reentry plan shall be developed by a committee including appropriate school personnel and others including but not limited to the principal who originally recommended the expulsion or his designee; a representative of the superintendent; appropriate school based staff, the parent/guardian, the student and representatives of student services if necessary.

Step 3: Reentry plans must be reasonable and realistic in demands placed upon the student and the school and achievable by both parties. The reentry plan shall include:

A. Decisions of the student relative to his/her future conduct. Such a statement reflect the student's commitment in his/her own words that he/she will follow the rules of conduct established by the school.

B Requirements may include (but not limited to) evaluation by representative of Student Services, contact with a community agency (where appropriate), counseling, completion of special school work, and such requirements as may be deemed reasonable to assure that the misconduct leading to expulsion will not recur. The reentry requirements shall not include those which would cause negative feelings toward the instructional program but may include special classes or transfer of school assignments.

C. A listing of any adjustments to the student program of study or school day or special assignment.
D. A statement by the school citing the resources which will be utilized to assist the student in his/her reentry to school.

E. A statement relative to the procedures or actions to be taken in the event the agreement between the school and the student is broken.

F. An indication from the parents or guardians that they understand and accept the conditions set forth in the reentry plan.

Step 4: Following completion of the reentry plan which is acceptable to the school administrator who will be responsible for supervision of the student, the plan shall be sent to the Commissioner or designee for review and approval. When approved the Commissioner shall submit the reentry plan to the Board of Education.

For the purposes of this program, disruptive behavior is behavior that:

frequent conflicts of a disruptive nature while the student is under the jurisdiction of the school either in or out of the classrooms; or

(B) severely threatens the general welfare of the student or others with whom the student comes into contact.

(2) The program includes, but is not necessarily limited to, in-school suspension, alternatives to expulsion, counseling centers, and crisis intervention centers.

(3) Students who have been placed in detention or a court-adjudicated commitment program or a person adjudicated in need of supervision must be evaluated by school district personnel upon the completion of the program prior to the placement of the students into an educational program. Such students must not be automatically assigned to a disciplinary program upon re-entering the school system.

(4) Prior to assigning a student to a disciplinary program of more than 10 days in duration, the insular superintendent shall attempt a continuum of education and student services to identify the causes of the disruptive behavior, to modify the behavior, or to provide more appropriate educational services to the student; however, students who have committed an offense which warrants expulsion according to the code of student conduct may be assigned to a disciplinary program without attempting a continuum of services.

§ 761. Legislative findings; intent.
The Legislature of the United States Virgin Islands hereby finds that school violence is a problem in the territory's schools. The Legislature also finds that there needs to be a reshaping of the approach to combating school violence. The Legislature further finds that the imposition of penalties alone is an insufficient and ultimately unworkable device for curbing school violence. As such, the Legislature finds that there currently exist a need for the insertion of an in-school mechanism for assisting our youngsters with handling inter-personal and inter-group conflicts without resorting to violent behavior. The Legislature proposes to implement a school-based, conflict resolution education program. The intent of conflict resolution education and consequently this chapter is to reduce violence, vandalism, chronic absence, and suspension in Virgin Islands schools. The goals of conflict resolution education are as follows:

(1) offer problem-solving processes that can improve the school climate;
(2) offer Virgin Islands students an alternative to self-destructive violent behavior when faced with interpersonal and inter-group conflicts;
(3) help students and teachers deepen their understanding of themselves and others, thus developing important life skills;
(4) provide training in negotiation, mediation, and consensus decision making as a means of encouraging a high level of citizenship activity;
(5) shift the responsibility for solving nonviolent conflicts to students so that adults can be free to concentrate more on teaching and less on discipline; and
(6) create behavior management systems that are more effective than detention, suspension, or expulsion in order to deal with conflict in the school setting.
§ 1941. Detaining children from school.

Whoever-

(1) detains any child from attending school at the prescribed times and places, without authority of lawful regulation; or

(2) performs or omits any act whereby any child under his control, directly or indirectly, is hindered from regular attendance at school—shall be fined not more than $20 for each day's absence.

Gang-related Activity

LAWS

§ 780. Purpose.
The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the creation of a bullying prevention, gang resistance education and training program.

§ 781. Legislative findings; intent.

LAWS

§ 767. Illinois Institute for Dispute Resolution as model.
(a) The fundamental skill areas are parts of the curriculum of the Creating a Peaceable School model of the Illinois Institute for Dispute Resolution ("IIDR"). It is the intent of this chapter to have the IIDR model adopted throughout the territory's schools to the extent applicable and appropriate. Each school in the Virgin Islands shall have the flexibility to decide whether or not to adopt the IIDR model given its level of intra-school conflict, needs, and level of violent behavior. If the IIDR model is adopted by a school, that school shall develop a peer mediation program.
(b) A broad-base coalition of administrators, classroom teachers, special educators, counselors, deans, social workers, and health educators interested in developing a conflict resolution program will be necessary for a successful program.
(c) The conflict resolution program team of any school utilizing the IIDR model may also include parents, students, and/or community members.
(d) A school in the Virgin Islands opting for the IIDR model shall include the following six phases of the peer mediation-based, conflict resolution program.
   (1) Develop the Program Team and Commitment
   (2) Design and Plan the Program
   (3) Select and Train the Mediators
   (4) Educate a Critical Mass
   (5) Develop and Execute a Promotional Campaign
   (6) Program Operation and Maintenance
(e) PHASE I shall include the following activities:
   (1) creating the program team
   (2) training the program team
   (3) designating the program coordinators

(f) Following phase I, the school is encouraged to establish an advisory committee of 10 to 12 members representing the diverse interests of the school and community, including parents, teachers, school and district administrators, students, support staff, community representatives and corporate sponsors. The advisory committee shall oversee the development of the program, including the role of mediation within the school's discipline program: assist the program team in developing timelines for implementation; and identify and develop funding sources.
(g) PHASE III entail recruiting, selecting, and training student mediators. Nominations shall be broadly solicited from among staff and students, including self-nominations. Advanced training includes bias awareness, social/cultural diversity, advanced communication, uncovering hidden interests, dealing with anger, caucusing, negotiation, group problem solving.

(h) PHASE IV focuses on educating a critical mass about conflict, conflict resolution, and the mediation process by using workshops for faculty, students, parents, and the community. An in-service training program shall be established for the purpose of helping staff develop a common understanding of conflict, learn the principles of conflict resolution, develop an understanding of the mediation process, learn how to support the peer mediation program through curriculum integration and referral of conflicts to mediation, and prepare to conduct student workshops.

(i) Because peer mediation can be greeted with skepticism, promoting the program among the student population is crucial to its success.

(j) PHASE VI encompasses requesting mediation, scheduling mediations and mediators, supervising mediators, recording mediation data, providing ongoing training and support, and evaluating programs.

§ 783. Implementation.

(a) Each school district shall make suitable provisions for instruction in bullying prevention and gang resistance education and training in all grades and include such instruction in the courses of study regularly taught therein.

LAWS

§ 2902. Tiered system of supports and education support team.

(a) Within each school district's comprehensive system of educational services, each public school shall develop and maintain a tiered system of academic and behavioral supports for the purpose of providing all students with the opportunity to succeed or to be challenged in the general education environment. For each school it maintains, a school district board shall assign responsibility for developing and maintaining the tiered system of supports either to the superintendent pursuant to a contract entered into under section 267 of this title or to the school principal. The school shall provide all students a full and fair opportunity to access the system of supports and achieve educational success. The tiered system of supports shall, at a minimum, include an educational support team, instructional and behavioral interventions, and accommodations that are available as needed for any student who requires support beyond what can be provided in the general education classroom and may include intensive, individualized interventions for any student requiring a higher level of support.

(b) The tiered system of supports shall:
   (1) be aligned as appropriate with the general education curriculum;
   (2) be designed to enhance the ability of the general education system to meet the needs of all students;
   (3) be designed to provide necessary supports promptly, regardless of an individual student's eligibility for categorical programs;
   (4) seek to identify and respond to students in need of support for emotional or behavioral challenges and to students in need of specialized, individualized behavior supports;
   (5) provide all students with a continuum of evidence-based positive behavioral practices that promote social and emotional learning, including trauma-sensitive programming, that are both school-wide and focused on specific students or groups of students;
   (6) promote collaboration with families, community supports, and the system of health and human services; and
   (7) provide professional development, as needed, to support all staff in full implementation of the multi-tiered system of support.

(c) The educational support team for each public school in the district shall be composed of staff from a variety of teaching and support positions and shall:
   (1) Determine which enrolled students require additional assistance to be successful in school or to complete secondary school based on indicators set forth in guidelines developed by the Secretary, such as academic progress, attendance, behavior, or poverty. The educational support team shall pay particular attention to students during times of academic or personal transition.
   (2) Identify the classroom accommodations, remedial services, and other supports to be provided to the identified student.
   (3) Assist teachers to plan for and provide services and accommodations to students in need of classroom supports or enrichment activities.
   (4) Develop an individualized strategy, in collaboration with the student's parents or legal guardian whenever possible, to assist the identified student to succeed in school and to complete his or her secondary education.
   (5) Maintain a written record of its actions.
   (6) [Repealed.]

(d) No individual entitlement or private right of action is created by this section.

(e) The Secretary shall establish guidelines for teachers and administrators in following federal laws relating to provision of services for children with disabilities and the implementation of this section. The Secretary shall develop and provide to supervisory unions information to share with parents of children suspected of having a disability that describes the differences between the tiered system of academic and behavioral supports required under this section, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C.
§ 794, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. chapter 33, including how and when school staff and parents of children having a suspected disability may request interventions and services under those entitlements.

(f) It is the intent of the General Assembly that a gifted and talented student shall be able to take advantage of services that an educational support team can provide. It is not the intent of the General Assembly that funding under chapter 101 of this title shall be available for a gifted and talented student unless the student has been otherwise determined to be a student for whom funding under that chapter is available.

(g) The tiered system of academic and behavioral supports required under this section shall not be used by a school district to deny a timely initial comprehensive special education evaluation for children suspected of having a disability. The Agency of Education shall adopt policies and procedures to ensure that a school district's evaluation of a child suspected of having a disability is not denied because of implementation of the tiered system of academic and behavioral supports. The policies and procedures shall include:

1. the definition of what level of progress is sufficient for a child to stop receiving instructional services and supports through the tiered system of academic and behavioral supports;
